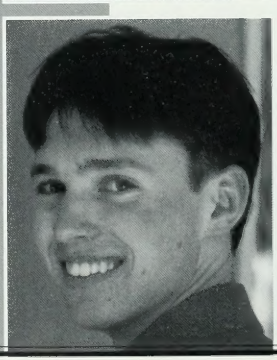
Editor's Notes:

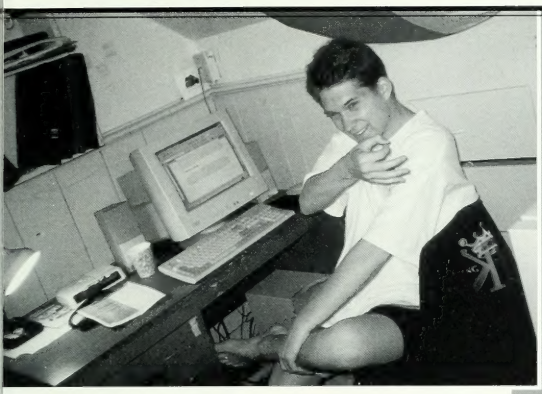
The late nights, the early mornings, and the many hours have paid off. Yes, we the staff of The Review are happy to be able to present you with your 1999-2000 yearbook! As a 'newbie' to the world of The Review this year I learned quickly about the process involved in putting together a yearbook as unique as ours here at St. Andrew's. Sure, we never get the yearbook completed by end of the school year but that is because we like to cover third term events up to, and including, Prize Day. The result: A yearbook that actually covers the whole year.

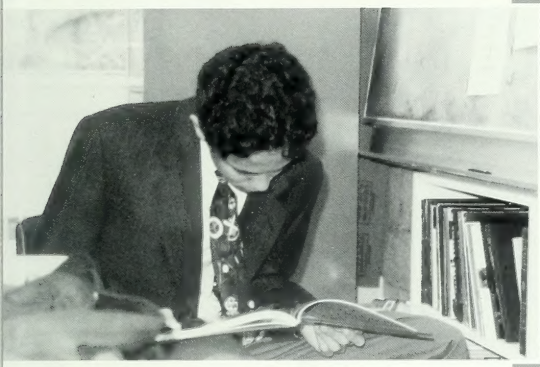
There is a lot more involved in the construction of the yearbook than meets the eye of the reader. A simple page of photos involves building a layout in PageMaker and composing any heading images in Photopaint or Photoshop. Once this is done photos have to be cropped and layouts updated where needed. The final product is packed into an envelope and sent to the plant. For the most part I have enjoyed doing all of this very much. It can be very exciting to watch the book take shape. However, there are certain sections that I worked on which I would consider to be nightmares. Less than 50% of the graduating class submitted their comments until I phoned their houses asking for them two weeks after prize day. This surprised me — even the yearbook staff who vanished once school ended. Mr. Treasure, The Review's Advisor has been in his office every morning over the last six weeks of his holiday tracking down missing information and composing pages that should have been done by other members of the yearbook crew had they not vanished. We all owe him a big "thank you," — he deserves it!

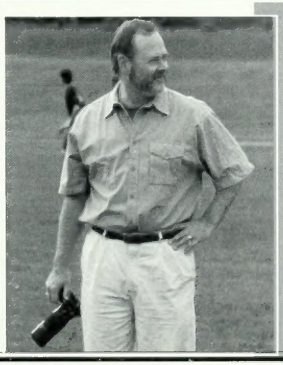
Having said all this, we hope you enjoy this Millennium edition of The REVIEW. As you flip through the pages try to keep in mind how much time and effort have been put into this book. A lot of time was spent in order to create a book we all can enjoy.

Iain Myrans Review









Advisor's Notes...

This yearbook began as a team effort by the yearbook class. They worked in collaboration to learn layout skills and master desktop challenges. It is unfortunate that this class will not be offered in the coming year. It played a vital role in 'jump-starting' the production of this book and offered students a 'hands - on' learning and publishing experience, like no other. However, publishing a book as a class endeavour was a daunting task - talk about a 'monster' learning curve! To some extent a 'class approach' slowed matters down - some students grasped concepts and executed designs with ease - others clearly laboured. Early layouts are evident... everyone improved over the course of the year and if one detects some inconsistencies in our layouts this was all part of the great learning process. However, I was pleased with their progress despite my repeated admonitions that, "It isn't finished, 'til it's finished!" Thanks guys!

Ultimately, and inevitably, a great deal was left to be finished after classes left in June. My greatest thanks go to Iain Myrans who stepped in willingly to smooth the rough edges and to help complete the yearbook.

However, now the results are before you and this book takes its place proudly alongside the significant corpus of past yearbook achievements. We think you'll enjoy it! There are plenty of memories that are evoked by its pages. We hope it conveys a good sense of the 1999-2000 SAC experience and that it portrays an accurate archival sense of events as they unfolded. It is, above all, a students' yearbook. Of course, no doubt there will be some cause for criticism. This is inevitable and comes with any yearbook territory. We would invite anyone ready to cast stones to join next year's production team. There is much to be done: from taking photos to submitting writeups covering school events and activities. In particular, we invite those Grads who, despite many pleadings and entreaties, neglected to submit comments or who went way past deadlines and guidelines. Thanks to all students and staff who made our jobs easier and ultimately we give thanks to the school and Headmaster without whose support the book would not exist.

Now it is time to move on. It is with mixed feelings that I do so. Giving birth to these books was sometimes a painful experience. However, looking back I take pride and satisfaction in the products. I have enjoyed working with many students and editors who, though sometimes struggled and sometimes triumphed, always lived up to the school's motto. Through hard work and total immersion in the creative experience they learned something incredibly valuable about themselves.

Finally, thanks to my family. To J.R. - perhaps one summer we'll get in that game of golf!

Sincerely,
S.R. Treasure - July 2000.

Valete: Mrs. W. Bell

The St. Andrew's College community is sorry to have to say goodbye to Mrs. Bell who is leaving us to enjoy a new home and lifestyle in Nova Scotia. For many years she has served our students well and has given dedicated and helpful guidance to our Grads. We will miss her devotion and friendship but wish her well in the Maritimes.

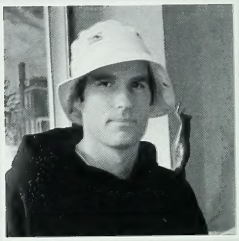
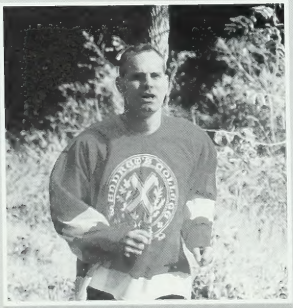
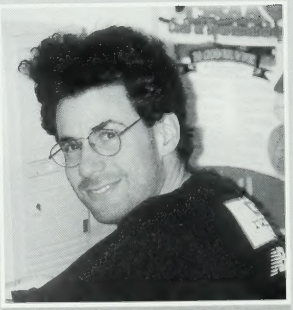
COME ON AND FINISH THE RACE!
WE ALL WANT TO GO HOME.



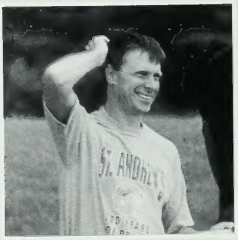
THAT WAS THE RIGHT NOTE, WASN'T IT?



I'M ALMOST AT THE FINISH
LINE, I THINK.... I HOPE!



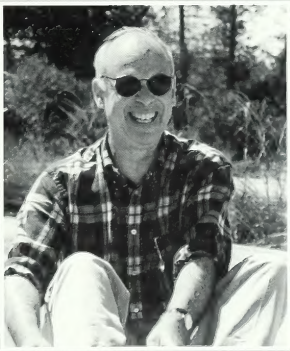
YES, OF COURSE I'M...
'WORKING'



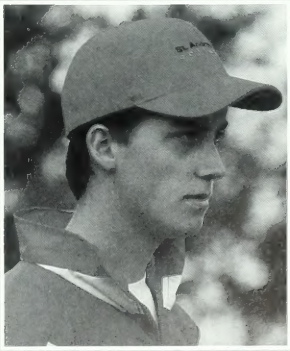
Go Ahead! I'm great at catching those things!

So that's how my new zoom lens works... Hey, who's that other guy with the camera?

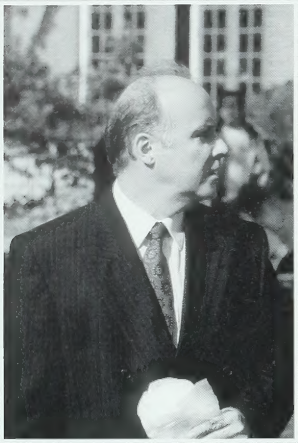
Yes, it's true -- teachers are just as weird (even more so) OUTSIDE the classroom!



Hehehe... ummm.. What was I laughing about again?



I'm really trying to concentrate right now. That camera isn't helping!



Now if I can just stash this package before the HM sees...

Ms. Jane Kravchenko

After 5 years at SAC, Ms. Kravchenko is leaving to devote her time to her family. We will miss her dedication and enthusiasm as a teacher of English and her excellent instruction as a coach of volleyball and tennis. We wish Ms. Kravcheno and husband Peter and son Satchel all the best in the future.

Ms. Clare Kowaltschuk

Although she was here for only one year at SAC, Ms. Kowaltschuk made a huge impact. We enjoyed her Geography classes and she shared with us her knowledge and enthusiasm for skiing, badminton, and tennis. We wish her well as she heads to Japan with her husband, Adam to teach for the next two years.

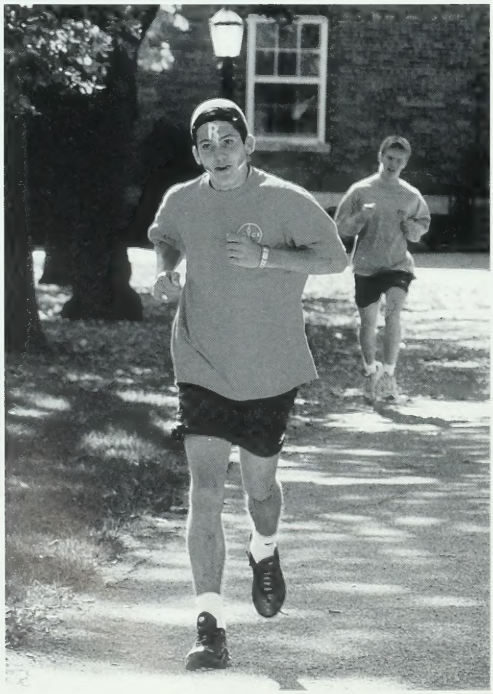
Mr. Stephen Penton

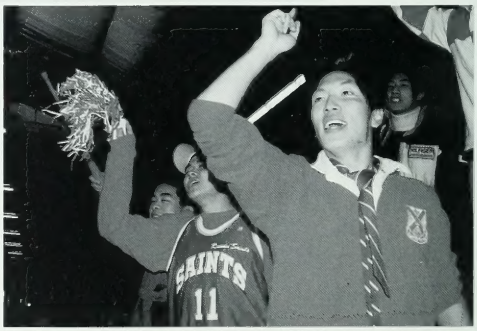
Having seen active service in the trenches of Macdonald House during his year here Mr. Penton is leaving to get married. He has been very active in assisting in many facets of both school and house programs and his Grade 8 English class was enjoyed by all. Best wishes from all members of the Andrean community!

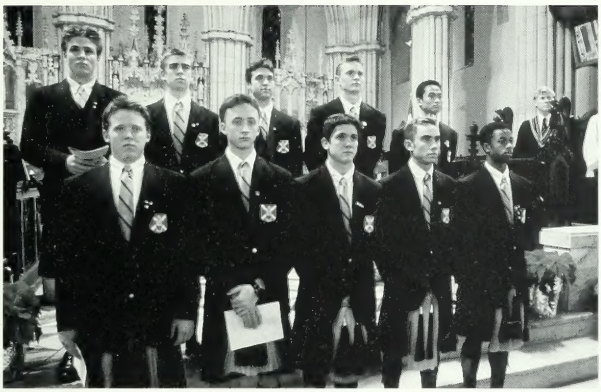
Mr. Rob McLean

Mr. McLean visited us this year from Australia. As a GAP student, he added much to our cricket program and willingly offered his tutorial assistance to countless boys. He assisted with our sports program by helping to coach many teams. His friendly presence will be missed by all.

A Few Good Shots







PREFECTS

The privilege of being a prefect was bestowed on ten young Andreans this year, all of whom proved equal to the task. Led by our Head Prefect Alain Chicoine the Prefects of the 1999 – 2000 school year provided an abundance of memorable moments.

The year began well with the Annual Homecoming Festivities, which was highlighted by the dance that saw an unprecedented female to male ratio (at least 3:1). Homecoming put the year in flight and readied the group for the first of two Semi-formals. The Semi's this year were a resounding success, they were powered by a "Casino" theme and a "Cupid's Garden of Eden" theme in the fall and winter respectively. Next up was the formal, which proved a fitting end to a year full of tremendous events. The Prefects would like to thank the students for their renewed enthusiasm and overall good behaviour at all of the events this year.

The 1999 – 2000 school year was not without adversity for the prefect group, but I think it is safe to say that we persevered, and in the end prevailed both on a personal and financial landscape. The financial success of the past year, and the resulting profit, should lay a firm groundwork for next year's Prefects to stand on. We wish them the best of luck.

Being a prefect is an extremely challenging endeavour, and while the end reward and satisfaction that comes with it keeps you going, sometimes it still seems that the academic and personal sacrifice is not justifiable. This is something we as a Prefect group wrestled with, and we came to this conclusion. No matter how great the obstacle, you are a Prefect and you perform as one because making sacrifices for the greater good is what being an Andrean is all about. That is what S.A.C. instilled in us. Thank you to everyone who helped.

It has been indeed a long and fun journey for me here at SAC. I just can't believe that it is over. There is so many people to thank. I just want to thank the whole SAC family (especially Mr.Bedard) for allowing me to attend SAC.I just want to thank all the staff especially, Mr. Perrier , Mr. Dominato and most of all Mr. Swan. Big up to the West Indies Crew man like Sands (Duck), Floyd (CB- Deion Saunders), Smiley (Chuckles oh giggles), Ibes (Bobby dawg), Gringo (TL/Sharky), Chicken (yammi) and my brethren Omar Sleem (who passed away in April 1999). I want to dedicate this graduation to my family and most of all to my parents and a special, missed and loved friend Omar. To my dawg Smiley what can I say papa, this is the end of our life at SAC. You and me have been here beuy for three years. We ran this place! Smiley and Smokey run tings LIVE! St. Andrew's has changed my life tremendously. I am glad I attended this excellent institution. It has taught me many things in life that I happened to overlook. It also made me appreciate how lucky I am to go to such a magnificent school. Beuy I want to send this to some of my main boys: Richie, Krack, Devo, Chisel, Bah Bah, Al, Crispal, Moisture, Ross (my brother), Ronnie, Gawell, Mitch, McFly and Khaz. Now I leave here having broadened my horizons and thinking about many values of life.
Peace Out !

Overall, I have enjoyed my three years at St. Andrew's. I've met many new people and learned a new way of life other than "Island Life". It was tough to adapt to the Canadian-way but I managed to the end. There are many people here at SAC who helped me through the past three years. Thank you Mr. Halstead, my advisor, teacher, coach and friend for all his advice and guidance. I would also like to thank Mr. Foy and Mr. Shrimpton and Mr. McCue for being great House Masters. Life at SAC is nothing without friends. I have made friends with people that will last a lifetime. I want to thank Gummy Bear, Dodo, Bowser, Mark, Hormone, Skols, Jamie and Dick for being really good friends. Last of all, but certainly not the least I would like to thank my parents for giving me such an opportunity as this to attend SAC. I really appreciated it because so many people are unable to have the same opportunity as I have had. I know all the sleepless nights you had were because you cared so much for my future and me most of all. Thank you very much and I love you both.

I have to thank my parents, for all the money, time, and support. Mom, you're always there to do anything I need done, to run errands for me, etc. I can't believe I didn't appreciate you more all these years. Dad, thanks for the advice, and also for the second chance. Brent, enjoy your time here while it lasts. Strive for every honour, every award, every position you want and think you have even a half chance of getting. You'll really appreciate all of them when you're gone. Finally, I can't leave out Kristin, who's been with me for the final two years, and has been as much a part of my life as anyone ever could be. I love you sweetheart. You always know how to make me laugh. Well, for any students who didn't know me but happen to be reading this right now, I'll leave you with a thought. When I came here, I was Ryan Jeffrey Brandham, a shy, small, immature new boy. I soon became Ry, or Brandham, as I developed some friends. Now, I am only R.J. Brandham, a name you can see on one or two of those boards in the library, if I'm lucky. Enjoy your time here guys, soon you too will be just a name in the annals of SAC.

What is the inner meaning of ' being an Andrean' ? After looking deeper than the parties, the laughs and the mishaps . Beyond the missed assignments and C.O.S.S.E.T. meetings and right down to the bare bones of the St. Andrew's experience, I pinpointed the essence of being here. This hidden truth is quite simple really! It is a combination of air and fingering creating a sound. A sound that if not appreciated or admired could cause headaches or even migraines, but to an Andrean's ears is the most beautiful sound in the world. You hear it when First Football takes the field, or at the Friday Night Macpherson game. The sound symbolizes pride of being part of a tradition. This simple sound manifests itself in the form of a high pitched squeal, long and sharp piercing through the ear drum which sends shivers down your spine. This sound is the bagpipes, and the bagpipes are St. Andrew's. So when I hear the pipes forever more I will remember that my brothers, Kai and Craig, paved the way for me. My parent's hard earned sacrifices. The support I received from teachers, coaches and many, many friends. Beyond all of that and lastly knowing that the boys before, during and after my time share the same sentiments.

A lot of memorable things have been happened through my 2 years in SAC. Although 2 years are not a long time, but it's kind of hard to put down all my thoughts within only a few hundred words. So, I just want to say thanks to all my friends and teacher for the lass 2 years. First, I want to that say thanks to my parents to give me a chance to attend to this school, it's kind of hard for them to afford it. Thanks MOM! Also, All my friends were helping me a lot though out this 2 years too. (WXn, MicXXXl Lau,BaXXy Wai, JoXX Wu…….forgive me if I forgot to put your name on) It's my pleasure to meet you guys. Good luck to all of u and don't forget to keep in touch!!

Special thanks to all my teacher Mr. Wenk, Mr Jones, Mr Butcher, Mr, Giel, Mr Swan, Mr Inglis. Especially to my housemaster Mr. Perrier, he not only my house-master, but also my adviser and 2 math teacher. I have too much to say in this short comment. It is quiet hard to explain my feeling right now, but at least I know that I have to say good bye to SAC now.(Jesus Christ…..It's really hard to finish my Grad Comment at the last minute before prize day you know….. But finally……yeah!! ^_^)

Four quick years have gone by, and I couldn't have spent them in any better way. Being at St. Andrew's College was a remarkable and worthy experience, one that will ever be in my mind. Here, I acquired knowledge in numerous subject areas, which will prove to be helpful when I start my university studies next September; I met many sincere people and made genuine friends; and most importantly, I grew from a quiet little boy into a mature and sociable person. Years from now, I'm going to look back and laugh at the happy moments that I've spent here.

First off, I would like to thank my parents for their love and care, and most of all, their wise decision to send me to St. Andrew's College. I feel very fortunate to have such a great family. I would like to thank my advisor, Mr. Dunford, for his valuable guidance throughout the years; Mr. Bedard for being an excellent Housemaster; Mr. Arril, Mrs. Bell, Mr. Rush, and Mr. Giel for their help with my university applications; Mr. Paolini for his great coaching and tolerance when I played poorly; Mr. Halstead for developing me into a table tennis player; Mr. Robson for leading THE Magazine; all my teachers for their valuable advice; and all my friends who made these four years at SAC such a great time. Thank you!

It has been 5 years since I came to SAC, and all I can say is time passed by in a flash. Honestly, I really hated this school when I first came here: many times I had the thoughts of transferring to other school. The reason was I couldn't bear a life without girls, I'm sure all of you guys would agree with me. However I managed to stay alive. I must say that I'm a lucky person, to have such loving parents who are willing to send me to this private school. However, I'm not reluctant to say that I have fulfilled myself through out the life at SAC, and I did not let my parents down. I would like to thank all the teachers that have taught me, but in perticular the following: Thank you Mr. Arril, for your guidance on my university applications, and for the greater knowledge that you have fed me on world religion, that was one of my favourite courses. Thank you Mr. Galajda, I really enjoyed being in your biology class. Thank you Mr. Perrier for having so much confidence in my math skills. Last but not the least, I would like to thank all my friends at SAC. Thanks for all the good times guys, I'll miss you when I'm in university while you're all still in SAC. "St. Andrew's College is not an ordinary place." I would never have used such a description to describe SAC in my first year, however, I realized now that it is the only and the best way that I can depict SAC.

I'm not going to blab on about what SAC meant to me like what the others have written. Instead I'm going to dedicate my Grad Comment to the one and only person I admired most at SAC. He'd always be there to help me with my problems, or gave me the best possible advises, or made sure that I was allright, or motivated and encouraged me to keep going. He was a second Father to me... and he is Mr. Bedard.

Mr. Bedard was my housemaster and advisor. Knowing that I'm a Prefect, he assured that I wouldn't put most of my time into Prefect duties and house duties... he always told me that academics came first. Although I love to help others the most I can, I always remembered this advice. I'm pretty sure that without him by my side, I would have struggled in my last year at the school. I've learned a lot from him. I'll miss him very much. Before I end this...

Thanks for EVERYTHING Sir!

When you're a seven year club member it seems as if the end will never come. Having spent more than a third of our lives at the school it becomes a part of your life and finally here I am writing my last thoughts that will finish off my career at SAC. For me, walking to school on the lower fields, up the chapel steps at 8 in the morning while hearing the chapel bells ring has become a ritual. This will surely be missed in years to come, along with the Volleyball and Badminton practices, cadets, and rides home from Rick. I would first like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend SAC and their support and encouragement all these years. Ms. K, you've been my coach at every level of volleyball, thank you for the bits of advice on life and for always listening. Mr. Robson, thanks for letting me hang around your teams for the past 4 years. Mr.Cowell, the last seven years I have been practically living in your classroom looking for every opportunity to bother you or just talk. Thank you for your advice and guidance all these years and for being my advisor, teacher, and friend. Wyn, thanks for Alg, and Calc! Gr7 guys, we survived the seven years at SAC! Tom, I'll miss our little talks in the hallways. Rick and Kaz, after all that we've been through its hard to put it into words...we're finally done.

The lessons I learned at SAC that weren't taught in the classroom: #1. If I work hard I will succeed regardless of how 'smart' I am. #2. If I stop worrying about what other people think I can focus on what I'm doing…and I can do it well. #3. If I cheat, I'm cheating all my classmates as well as myself, which doesn't get any of us anywhere. #4. Friends last forever. #5. Habits are as easy to make as they are to break (which applies to both good ones and bad ones). #6. Honesty is the best policy. Even though the truth may get you in trouble, telling a lie will get you in even more trouble than you already are. #7. There is so much more to life then just a good education.

Thinking back on my two years at S.A.C. I am just now realizing the important lessons that the school has tought me. It would be difficult to go through everything, but briefly, I learned independence, leadership, time management, and how to dress for winter (my first winter being at the school). I would like to thank all the teachers and staff for making my experience at the school a very productive one. I would especially like to thank my two housemasters Mr. Shrimpton and Mr. Foy for being there if I needed them and to all my friends at the school who made the time a fun one.

The first drive up the impressive driveway here at SAC is an eye opening experience and is the stepping-stone that has launched many of my classmates and friends and the generations before us on a long and difficult journey. My personal journey here at SAC is coming to an end but the trip along the way has been full of ups and downs. It has taken me to the top of Kala Pattar in Nepal, onstage for the curtain call at Westside story, to and ISAA Championship in Football and everywhere in between. Along the way I have made a lot of friends that I will never forget and appreciate there understand and friendship and wish them all the best in their future endeavors. To my teachers, you have opened my eyes to new worlds I never knew existed and taught lessons that extend beyond the classroom. (Like how to cheat on your taxes, Thanks Mr. G.) Lastly but not least I would like to thank my Mom and Dad, you guys let me go when you really didn't want to and have been amazingly supportive in every way and let me try everything I wanted to. I didn't always succeed but I always learned a lot in the attempt. As we all go our separate ways after graduation I know I will always carry the lessons that I have learned from SAC with me and will always remember the good times and wish everyone the best of luck.

Upon entering the gates of SAC, for the first time, I had no idea what was in store for me. It is only now, as my final year draws to an end, that I have come to realize the true magnificence of this place. Not only has SAC taught me respect and responsibility, but it has also given me a great education and the opportunity to make countless good friends and memories that I will cherish for a lifetime. First and foremost, I would like to thank my parents and family for giving me the opportunity to go to SAC. Every friend I've made, all the laughs I've had, and every adventure I've experienced is all owing to you, and if it wasn't for your loving support I might not have made it through. I would also like to give special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm who for the past 5 years have provided me with my second home, where the door was always open.

Well boys, what a long, strange trip it's been. I can't even begin to start recalling all the amazing times and messed up experiences we've had together....man it's all been a blast. Chisholm, Thompson, Porter, Middleton, Sinclair, MacDonald, Abraham, Chicoine, Snider, you guys are it! To all my Islander buddies, Smokey, Smiley, Pilgram, Krack, keep it real boys, you guys kick a*s. Well boys the bagpipes have finally faded away, yet I assure you my ears will be ringing for a life time.

As the typical story goes, I entered S.A.C not knowing what to expect and with conviction that this next phase of my life would be hell. It took a few years to settle in but eventually I realized that I'd be here until I graduate and I might as well make the best of the situation I was in. Fortunately, I realized early enough and I still had time to change my participation and contributions to S.A.C life. It was when I began to take advantage of the numerous opportunities Saint Andrew's College provides that I realized the advantage to be had spending six years of my life at S.A.C.

I would like to begin by giving thanks to my parents for sending me to S.A.C where I have transformed from a young boy to a man. I would like to thank all the teachers who have put up with me over the years. Special thanks to Mr. Galajda who pushed me to reach my full potential; Mr. Perrier who has laid down for me a strong foundation in mathematics; Mr. Cameron who taught me French for six years and Mr. Scoular who educated me on the things that are more important in life than academics. I'd like to finish off by giving respect to ALL my friends in and out of school; Asad, McFly, Bruce, Tsuji, Hash, Muj, Din, Sam, Ref, Jaf, Da click, my cousin Zainab, and to everyone else graduating this year.

SAC, just a little word, S... A...C... but what a meaning behind it. I'd like to think now that I ready to start my life that now I am prepared to fight, and you know what I think I am. This school isn't a normal high school it isn't just something the government put up. This school was built with care, with love, with pride. That's how our life has been for the past five years. And we have enjoyed it and embraced it. And we have taken every thing out of this school that we can. And we are prepared. There aren't that many things that they expect us to remember, but there is one that they enforce, even though it is a short sentence it is a strong meaning and every Andrean will know exactly what is meant behind it. "Quit ye like men, be strong." We are men now, and we are strong. I thank all my teachers and the staff at the school, for providing me with the best times of my life maybe! But they will be the most memorable. To all the people who want to know: THIS IS SAC; AND I AM; ANDREAN!!!!!! End of chapter high school, next chapter...

These six years that I have spent at SAC have been the weirdest years. I still remember my first year and it feels like it was yesterday. I guess that concussions don't lead to Brain damage. The people are wicked and I look at every other school and nothing compares to this one. SAC has an excellent reputation with sports that is not like any other school. But it wasn't until my final year that I realized that this isolated world would end. My final year was amazing but I still can't wait to get out. SAC has prepared me to the point that I am ready to leave and tackle my next step. There are lots of amazing teachers, so I've been told. The trip to Cancun was a different trip all together. I went down with some good friends and we made our names known at the bar. It was great fun when each one of us tried to take on Gord. I would like to thank Mike for this unusual year and for helping me when we first met the Branksome chicks. Frank next time its not going to be me in the corner. Blair thanks for freshening up my bathroom at room. Kyle, we have some good times together, do you remember any of them because I don't. Justin (Smokey) photo op. Miss. Kevin (smiley) sharky. Sorry about that. One thing I have learnt never try and dance on tables, they seem to be dangerous. Thanks to everyone that made this a wicked year.

For the Class of 2000, Prize Day brought feelings of both excitement and sorrow. Graduation meant it was time to move on and follow our instincts beyond the gates of St. Andrew's. My six year experience there is one that I will never forget; however, it could not have been made possible without the strong support from my family, thank you Mom, Daddy, Nano and Amber. I made friends from all walks of life here. Wanki, better known as Dr. David Suzuki, you know you're my best buddio. 2G...big 'G', you know I love jumbo butter burma prawns. OH DEAR! Huss the buss, INTENSE PHYSIO - enough said! Boris, Russian refugee, let's go get some stationary. haha! Nick you will always be my student. Tej, party man all the way, I will definitely be coming to Bowdoin for safe Ajmera jams guy!

My experience here would no be complete without recognizing some of the teachers that have influenced and shaped my life and deserve a big 'thankyou'. Mr. Arril for his guidance; Mr. Walden and Mr. Galajda for motivating me to do my best; Ms. Picerno for being an older sister, always giving me sound advice, GRACIAS; and Mr. Cameron who has changed me both on the squash court and the classroom, MERCI! I will never forget SAC and my friends and teachers who made it so memorable. It was a long six years and I finally made it. To all the grads…GOOD LUCK…and to all my friends…keep in touch! Lates…

First of all, I only have my incredible mother and father to thank for sending me to this institution. My four years at this place have been amazing. Through the good times and fair amount of bad times, they have been years of intense growth. It took a while to realise it but it was her that I really found myself. It was here that I realised my confidence and vast potential. The only teachers who ever taught me anything here were Mr. Myrans and Mr. Scoular. I don't care who disagrees, it's the truth. I wish everyone the best of luck in their future endeavours.

Special thanks to my sister Gael who was there in the hospital for me at late hours of the night, Pilgrim for being a good friend, Chicken, Smiley, Man! (Jacob), Chris Bibby, Gunman like Smokey, Scottie da hottie, Ariel, Pubes, Scoota, and Milphus.

Sayings: Money is bad, but it's necessary. You missed your tutoring session; you still get charged. Democracy can't work efficiently: a benevolent dictator (someone like me) is what the society needs. I skipped your class; here is your gift.

My St. Andrew's experience was a useful one: Mr. Myrans taught me how to approach research correctly and I will use this knowledge throughout my life. Without Mr. Myrans, my career at SAC would be incomplete. Mr. Halstead infected me with two diseases: Spanish and travel. I will never be cured from them and, eventually, die from the overwhelming side effects they bring. Ms. Picerno was an excellent language instructor and a person with whom I could share all my thoughts. Ms. Rose-Kudelka, Ms. Yonder and Ms. Roncadin kept me on the right path during my years at SAC, helping me in such vital things as stress management and moral support. Some other staff members were nice to me. Thanks to them. Thanks to my parents who sent me to St. Andrew's. Thanks to my friends in the OAC class that supported me, especially to Nick, Wanki, Asad and Jacob, who demonstrated that they are real friends.

First, I just like to thank God for allowing me to come to SAC. He has given me the strength in the hardest time and gave me joy at many things I did. My contentment of being an Andrean could not have been possible without God.

Second of all, I want to thank my family. Grace, thanks for being an awesome sister. Mom, what can I say other then I love you and thank you for all the things I'd taken as granted before. And finally dad, thank you for teaching me what life is, you know you're my hero!!! I also like to thank all the teachers and coaches that taught me more then just education and sports but showed me what life can bring. At times these were the teachers and coaches I didn't agree with but looking back, it was these kind of experience and challenges that they gave me that made me into a man. This school not only prepared me for education and sports but also life.

Time really went by quickly throughout my years in SAC. I remember the first week, it felt like a year. Now, this place feels like a timeless place, you walk in at September and a second later, you walk out in June. It went by fast when you were having a great time. I remember a lot of guest speakers who said to us that theirs high school life was their biggest influence time in their life. I can see they are right. SAC is already my most influency and memorable time at this time of my life. I must thanks all the teachers, staff, and students for making the best time in my life. Special thanks to my wise advisor, Mr. T. Myrans; my skillful tutor, and her generous husband, Mrs.T & Mr.G Robson; my housemaster and his kind wife, Mr.P & Mrs J Bedard; the helpful and nice librarians Mrs. Pilleci, and Ms. Marsh; the cheerful dininghall staff, Dave and Marie; and my good friends Adrian Chan, John Ngo, Jonathan, Nelson, Bernard, Ken Ho, Michael Lau, Adrian Lee, Wyn-Ron, Jackson, Ricky and J.C. and also my brother who always help me indirectly throughout the time in SAC. Most importantly, I must thanks my generous, and wise parents for sending me to this wonderful place to study with these wonderful people and also for supporting and listening to my problems and giving me the freedom and trust to chose my own path. Seven years of my life has passed in a blink of an eye. Having spent a large part of my life at SAC, it's almost like a second home to me. I leave SAC having mixed feelings with happiness and sadness. The happiness of what's to come and the sadness of what I'll be leaving behind. Nonetheless, the countless memories I've had here are priceless.

Without my parents, none of this would be possible. Thank you for sending me to such a great place. Wyn, what more can I say. I'm going to miss you being in all my classes. Thanks. J, you've put up with me for 7 years and been there for me every time on the courts or in the classroom. It's been rough, but we finally got through it! Mr. Dominato and Ms. K, you've taught me a lot on the courts both technically and mentally. I couldn't have had the success without your guidance. Mr. Cowell, thanks for everything. You've watched me grow old from a child to a man and you've been there when I needed advice and guidance. You've been a great help to me surviving the 7 years here.

Attending SAC has been an experience that I will never forget. I spent the last four years learning about life, playing sports, making friends with which I hope to never lose touch with, and all this wouldn't have happenened without my parents having sent me here. Fast-tracking, was a smart move for me, it made me work harder and become more efficient, and I proved to myself that I could do it succesfully. My parents gave me the opportunity and prvilege to come to SAC and to learn as much as I could from it; Thank you. I have always thought SAC to be a place of vast opportunities and learning experiences, but most of all a place to make "lifelong friendships"!

It is still hard to understand how short my experience has been, the time has flown by. My days at SAC as a student are over and never again will the SAC I attended be the same. After we graduate life goes on, hence the changes that will take place. And so when I pass through the gates for the last time never again will I return as a student. I will leave with the same body with which I arrived but with a Mind and soul that have experienced the ecstasy and hardship of being an adolescent. And it is with these experiences that I will pass through the gates and into the world with the mind to imagine, the body to act, and a soul full of aspirations. Instead of regretting what has come to an end, I look forward for what is to come. As someone who's lived on the campus for most of my life, and considering St. Andrew's is not only my school but also my home, it seems strange to be moving on to University. It also seems strange to be leaving friends who I've seen every day for so long -- especially Iain Rogers, Stephen Gariepy, Alex Tse, Stephen Alanko and Boris Kholodov. I know Iain, Steve and I are all going to miss our little hang-out (being the Ketchum Auditorium Lighting Booth) and all the fun we had working in the theater over the last four or five years -- a major part of our lives here. I'll always think back to my trips to Vancouver, Costa-Rica and Nepal which, in each case, I went on to represent St. Andrew's either in sport, academic, or community service work. It's been a wonderful place to go to school and I will miss it. Thank you to all the teachers I've had over the years; thank you to Ms. Marsh and Mrs. Pilieci, the friendliest librarians in the world; and of course thank you my parents who struggled to make it possible for me to attend this school. Finally thank you Carolyn for all your guidance in what has been a very busy and somewhat stressful Grade 13 year. I always wonder where I'd be without you.

As my home is on campus I'll still be around when I'm not at University but I know it won't ever be quite the same. I'll miss this place.

One of those people who passed by here before us reminded us to remember to always take time to say thanks to those who give. This is my time to thank people who gave me so much during my 5 years at SAC. Without them, SAC wouldn't have be the same place. My Parents - I still remember your worried faces when you left me here alone with other 450 boys. Without your sacrifice, encouragement, support, concern, and love, I would not be who I am. My deepest appreciation goes to you. Thank you. I love you so much. Asad – I could never imagine my life here without your presence. You have been more than a friend to me. I love you brother! Boris – What a guy! Language Master, Real Estate Agent, Part-time student, Full-time tutor, Nick, Thank you for being a true bro. Thanks 2G, Tejus for being true friends. St. Andrew's College was my home, battlefield, learning institute, hangout, and racing track. It's truly not an ordinary place. It taught me how to love, hate, cry, laugh, learn, and dream. I'm leaving this place as a man of potential who is up for any challenge. As Machiavelli said everything that doesn't hurt one makes him stronger, I've gone through the toughest times here and made me a stronger person. My friendship shall be cherished and the memories will be missed. When I leave the gate for the last time, I'm leaving as a man of dream.

These past four years may have been a blur, but squinting my eyes through the thick haze I think I can see a light somewhere in the distance. A light, that will soon lead me to the second stage of my life's journey. But, first and foremost I would like to thank my parents and family for sticking with me through the entirety of my immaturity and adolescence. I know its been a constant struggle as I've slowly learnt some life lessons, but I'm confident in saying that your patience and understanding has finally paid off. I could never have accomplished any of my dreams and goals without the great support that you have shown me throughout the years. Secondly big shouts out to all my boyz: you have given me some amazing memories and I'll never forget any of you. Sink the Pink- my fellow juvenile delinquent..cyat or should I say Sunny D?!? One thing is certain, I would not be the person I am today if it were not for this school. I have no point of comparison to judge the extent of this influence, but I am confident that the friendships made, the skills learned, the knowledge gained, and the habits formed will serve me well in all future endeavors. Thanks to my most inspiring and supportive fellow Andreans, my family: Stephen Gariepy, Iain Myrans, Jon Butcher, Tony Myrans, William Scoular, the Library staff and the whole graduating class. To condense my last five years at SAC would not give the school justice. I always thought that my high school years would take forever, but as each term passed, then after each year flew bye, by the time I realised that the time went bye so quickly, I didn't have very much time left. As I begin my final term at SAC, I only now have begun to realise the huge effect that this school has played in my life. The friends that I have made here I am sure will last me my entire life, and the work habits I have picked up will as well. As I walk through school during my last two months here, I can't help but think about how many times I have bumped into a friend, or run down the chapel steps for sports practice. In short, I will never forget all of the valuable lessons and memories that I have picked up from my peers, teachers, and mentors. Thank you SAC, I will never forget you.

As the haze of red and white fades and the sounds of 'As The Saints' and 'Amazing Grace' fades off into the background, I must say it's been the trip of a lifetime. I've made many good friends that hold a special place in my heart. Bobo, Chiz, Devo, Joey, Krack, Mikey, Rocko, Sinker, Terry you boys are it. I love you guys like brothers and brothers we will forever be. Mom and Dad I am forever in your debt and I hope I have made you proud. I love you both very much. Kath, thanks for doing my homework, you're the best. Steve and Graham, SAC has a lot to offer, so take full advantage of it, because the worst things in life are regrets.

Time has gone by so fast, I still remember the first day I passed the entrance gate when I first came here as a new boy in Grade 11. I still remembered I had the feelings of the anxiety and worries about the new school, the environment and all the prople in St Andrew's. Luckly, everything was going pretty smooth and under controlled, I have adapted to the lifestyles in St Andrew's pretty quickly and soon developed into a better person as time goes by. During the past three years, I have learned a lot in St Andrew's in both academics and in sports. I have learned how to get along with the people in this small community in St Andrew's. This really benefits me a lot when I finish my study and begin to work in the society. Every little things that I learned and every people that I have encountered in St Andrew's were valuable experiences for me. I will remember all those wonderful moments that I have shared with all of you and hopefully can carry on the spirit of the Andreans forever.

Additionally, I would also like to thanks my parents for sending me to St Andrew's to further my studies in such a fine and tremendous high school and receiving a high level of education. Finally, I would like to thanks all the teachers, students and Dinning Hall Staffs etc for providing me such a meaningful and Fulfilling career throughout my three years stay in St Andrew's College. Hopefully, I can get accepted In U of T at last as I wish. Then it will be a perfect ending for my high school career.

My three years at St. Andrew's has taught me many important lessons that will aid me on all of my future endeavours and has taught me that "life consists not in holding good cards but in playing those you hold well" Josh Billings. This can be applied to athletics, academics...life. You might not be the best on your team, the best in your class, or the best off, but if you set goals, work hard, and never lose focus, you will never lose in the game of life. I would advise everyone to do as much volunteer work as they can because "we make a living by what we get, we make a life by what we give" - Winston Churchill. To all my boys...respect!

I remember the first time when I stepped into the Great Hall for lunch on the new boy orientation day four years ago. I couldn't believe that I would be eating in this dining hall for four years in the future. But time did past quickly; I am now graduating from SAC.

Before coming to SAC, I had been in the same school for all my life (including kindergarten), so it was my first experience of adapting to a new school. Here I met a lot of amazing people – scholars, athletes, actors, artists, musicians and more. SAC had widened my views to this world. There were many things that I knew I would have never tried if I did not come to SAC. Being an Andrean is certainly one of the most important turning points of my life. The terrifying workload and compulsory activities had kept me busy every second. Although I had forgotten what is "free time" after I came here, I've learned a lot of things that people from other places wouldn't have the chance to learn. SAC made me well prepared for my future.

Finally, I would like to thank my parents for letting me become an Andrean. I would also like to thank all the teachers that had taught me in the four years, especially my advisor, Mr. Giel, who was always there for me. I will miss this place.

It seems like only yesterday that I joined St. Andrew's College because these two years has passed by like an April breeze. In a wink of an eye my high school life will come to an end and it will unite with my other memories. I must say I've had good times, but there had to be bad times to even things out (I guess that's life), but I'm happy to say that I was never alone to face them. I had all the support that I needed from the very special people around me, each of them special in their own way. My first thank you goes to my parents. Mum: without your support, smilez, caring heart, patience and love I wouldn't be here. Deddy: thank you for your support to put me through school, through the bad times, you were always there for me. Without you two, I would not of gotten a chance to study at such a place as this. I Luv you two with all my heart. Many thanks go to my Auntie Judie for taking care of me as my parent here, in TO. Finally, the ori - CISHK people; my best friends. MC, Worm, Hanger, Swervs, Fat, JoeJoe, Mountain Chicken: U Ma Bruthas alwayz. SAC is an unique experience for me. So many things I haven't tried before I experienced it, here, in SAC. Boarding, Cadets, Saturday school, curfew, chapel and study periods at night are just some things that made SAC so memorable. With tight schedules everyday (school, cadets, sports, study period), I felt that I'm not wasting time with my life. What I use to do was go to the arcades, watch TV, hang around malls, wasting time just to make my day fulfil. I have no control and no scheldule for that kind of life. Too chaotic and too much distractions. Well, now I'm back on track and actually study, I felt that these 2 years in SAC were way longer than what I was doing all those years back in Hong Kong. A really hectic life but its worth it when I realize how much I get out of it. The discipline, the education and most importantly, I am not wasting time, I am gaining a wothwhile experience. Finally, I like to say thanx to all my friends that stick up for me when I need them. Peace.

St. Andrew's Cross Country Run

Every year, there comes the inevitable day in SAC life when all active members of the school participate in the perennial cross-county run. While some enjoy the competition, others regard it as a necessary 'last step' before going forth to the Thanksgiving weekend.

As always, the event began as a massive group forming on the lower fields. Headmaster Staunton blew the whistle signaling the commencement of the race and the whole crowd scattered and the quicker atheletes headed off ahead of the pack.

Congratulations to Pete McClellan who sprinted to 1st place.

Thanks to all who participated with enthusiasm in this traditional event. It was a beautiful Fall day and an exhilarating way to start Thanksgiving.

Haliburton Forest

"I Loved It!"

"I Loved It too!

Grade 12 Environmental Science students recently engaged in our annual four-day field trip to Haliburton Forest Outdoor Education Centre (September 26-29). This was our eighth year at Haliburton Forest and, once again, the trip was a challenging and educational experience. Students took part in studies through instruction in outdoor survival skills, orienteering and forestry, a ropes course, cliff climbing, a night hike and a 30km mountain bike trek through the beautiful fall colours of Haliburton. A team effort was evident throughout the trip as students cooked and cleaned for each other; we had memorable meals: Soup de Oliver, Zaki's special muffins & pudding, and Giancarlo's Banana pancakes.

Our students were able to see a feeding of the nine wolves at Haliburton Forest Wolf Centre and some were also able to observe David Bishop of Haliburton Forest call out what he thought was a moose during their "survival skills" hike. It wasn't a moose that came crashing through the bush, however, but a large male black bear who, after a good look around, headed back into the woods. It was a great trip-and I'm looking forward to a visit to the Love Canal/ Niagara Region in April with group of highly motivated "environmentalists."

Billy Budd

Directed by Mrs. Lee Clements, Billy Budd takes place aboard the H.M.S. Indomitable at sea, in August, 1978. It is the year following the Naval mutinies at Spithead and the Nore.

The Master at Arms, played by Warren Lowe, lies and deceives us, while his abusive powertrip causes the men to loathe him with a passion. Captain Vere, played by Jacob Marcinkowski, tries to keep everything fair for everyone while still binded closely to the law. And of course, Billy Bud, played by Drewe MacIver, is a young boy who has just joined the crew. He is by far the nicest, yet most ignorantly naive person on the whole ship. Other actors like Cameron Steed, Alladin Diakun, and Austin Ball, helped to make this play great.

This is a story of corruption, abuse, false accusations, and murder. It is the first play in many years that has not been Shakespeare and it was very well done. Next year the play is going to be Romeo and Juliet, and you will likely see the same actors again. On behalf of the cast, thank you all for coming out and supporting us, we hope you all enjoyed it.

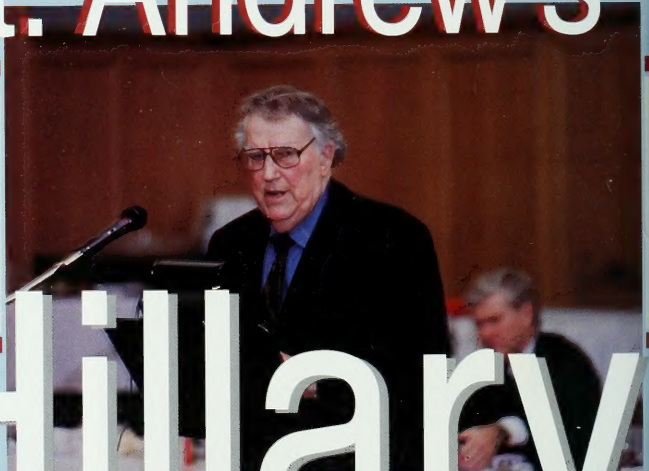
St. Andrew's Hillary

Once again, St. Andrew's College was honoured to welcome a worldly icon into the school. Sir Edmund Hillary came to St. Andrew's this year to tell the fascinating tale of his famous ascent of Mt. Everest, and to inform us about the Hillary foundation which benefits the people of Nepal.



College Day

The school learned about Sir. Edmund Hillary's devotion and commitment to the generous support of the Nepalese people.

A special banquet followed the presentation to finish off a truly memorable event. St. Andrew's continues to support this worthy cause and SAC students trekked to Nepal during this Spring.

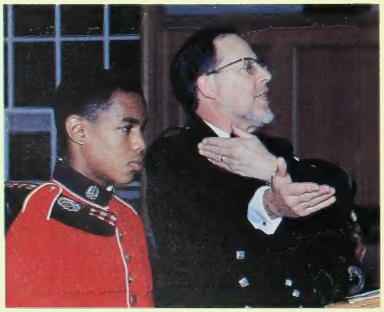
Quit Ye Like

St. Andre

This year's St. Andrew's Night and dinner was a splendid evening accompanied by great food, music, tradition, and presentation. Both Upper and Lower Schools enjoyed their own evening of festivities.

The evening began with traditional bagpipe music, setting the tone for the Scottish heritage of the school. The haggis was then brought out, much to the delight of the St. Andrew's boys and staff. A great "highland" feast was enjoyed by all in good Scottish spirit of the occasion.

After the dinner, the school was treated to an excellent performance of highland dancing. This display of talent and tradition was shown by two young but already very successful highland dancers.



Men, Be Strong

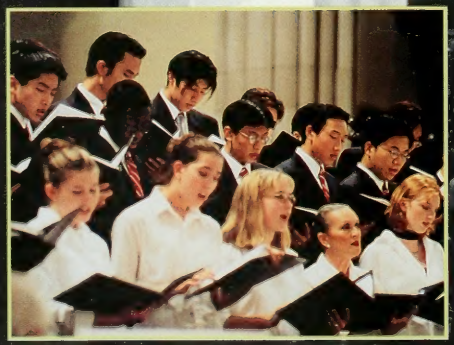
w's Night

A very impressive guest speaker, Mr. Scott Bryk was then introduced, who happened to be a former graduate of St. Andrew's College. Humourous stories of his transcontinental journeys were shared along with valuable insight as to the future that many of us Andrean's may quite possibly be facing after graduating.

Awards to individuals who displayed exemplary behavior and actions were then distributed to some of St. Andrew's finest. Other casual prizes were given out to those who had the name "Andrew" in their name for good nature.

Many thanks to Mr. Ray for his masterful rendition of the "Ode to the Haggis" and to Mr. MacGillvray and Mr. McCue for providing stirring Scottish music.

Carol Service



On December 2nd the majestic sounds of St. Andrew's College voices reverberated and echoed sounds of joy. The Carol Service was held at St. Paul's Anglican church in Toronto. An estimated 1500 carolers directed by Mr. Clements sang hymns such as, "The Dorset Carol" ,"Amazing Grace", "Hills of the North Rejoice", and "Emanuel". The Prefects sang, "Little

... Amazing Grace!

Drummer Boy" accompanied by organist Mr. Foy. Some of our talented musicians played solo instrumentals and Mr. McGee's concert band and Mr. Wenk's choir performed with excellence. Every Carol Service is a joyful way to wrap up the Christmas term and no doubt will remain a celebrated tradition for years to come.

1st Soccer: A Season to Celebrate!

Don't let the name fool you; with the Fall Term at St. Andrew's College now completed, the SAC First Soccer team (or Bobby Bears as they're known around campus) have a second consecutive CISAA league title under their belts. Last year, the SAC "Bobby Bears", lead by team captain Yamato Yoshioka ('99), capped off their 98/99 season by beating a skillful Ridley College team in the CISAA Finals, and this year did it again... while once again facing off against the Ridley Tigers in the '99 CISAA Final.

Back Row: M. Marshall, Esq., J. Allen, M. MacDonald, M. Fullerton, I. Sinclair, D. Domingues, D. Dawson Esq.
Middle Row: J. Albury, R. Devald, P. Sanders, J. Gideon, C. Steed, N. Weedon, B. McNabb
Front Row: A. Guy, J. Suddaby, N. Abraham, K. Richards, (Captain) B. Chisholm (Captain), J. Williams, A. Brander, N. Dadson, K. King, M. Jones Esq.

However, now that many of last year's players have graduated, this year's squad had a much younger face. In fact, the 99/2000 Bobby Bears possessed two starting players under the age of 14, and the average grade was only 12.

But, this is not to say that the Bobby Bears were a less skillful team. In only their first tournament appearance since last year's final, the Bobby Bears defeated Appleby College, Hillfield College, long time rival school Upper Canada College, and eventually went onto defeat Ridley College (again in the finals) to win the Early Bird Tournament.

But this was just the first achievement of many during their 10-week season. The SAC First Soccer team went undefeated throughout their entire 12 game season, and also beat Ridley 3-1 on September 25 at SAC's Homecoming, then two weekends after that, defeated a challenging UCC team 1-0 at UCC's Homecoming.

Whether or not it is in the cards for the SAC Bobby Bears to repeat a third time as CISAA Champions, only time will tell. But, now undefeated in 20 games spanning over a 2 year period, it is clear to see that no matter what, next year's Bobby Bears will definitely be a force to reckon with.

First Volleyball

This year's first Volleyball team had a total of seven returning players. With four players that were new to the game and two new coaches the team had a great deal to learn in a short period of time. Also new this year was the scoring system. The old system of five sets up to fifteen points was replaced with a new rally-point system up to 25 points.

The season was considered a successful one in that we were able to compete with every team in the league. Our best games were played against the top teams of UCC, Hillfield, and St. Mikes. While at times we struggled against the weaker teams but were still to post wins against them.

With additional coaching throughout the season we added a few plays that proved to be very successful and added to our offensive attack. Matt Tsuji, Mike Campbell, and Wyn-Ron Cheong proved to be our top hitters and were the team leaders in kills.

Defence was a trademark of the team as opponent's spikes were blocked and dug up consistently by Bruce Tasios and Ricky Luk. The top blocker on the team, to no ones surprise was the tallest player in the league. Jason Kaptyn, a first year volleyball player whom at the beginning of the season didn't even know how many players were on the court at a time, proved to be an obstacle for opposing hitters.

Entering the re-alignment tournament we were seeded in fourth place. With a very successful day were able to gain ground on the top teams and finished the regular season in third place. For the third straight year our semi-finals would be played at Hillfield in Hamilton.

Our camera shy Assistant Captain Matt Tsugi, and Jason Kaptyn looking to see if he gets to play.

Ms. Kravchenko, Ms. Brown and Dylan!

Canadian Flying Aces

Jason "Greedy" Kaptyn goes up.... that's too bad.

In the semi finals we probably played the best game of the season. After a hard fought first set that was won by us 25 - 20 we found ourselves up one set to none. However, in the next two sets luck was not on our side as a few lucky shots and untimely misses put us down 2 to 1; each was a loss of 5 or less points.

The season came down to the last set. Finding ourselves down 2 or 3 points each time, we had to play catch up throughout the set. Each team had a chance to take the lead but no one was able to pull away. With the score tied at 20 all, both of us traded points all the way to 25 each. With the ball bouncing in the other team's favour we lost the final set 27 - 25 and ended the season with a third place finish.

A highlight of the season was winning the Waldorf invitational Tournament. In this eight team tournament we defeated Mentor High school, Toronto Waldorf, and Toronto District High school to win the finals.

This year the team also participated in the first and soon to be annual CN Tower climb. On this day eight players went downtown and walked up the CN Tower in a charity event. Mike Craig posted the fastest time of 14 minutes, up the 1776 steps.

The graduating players we would like to wish next years team good luck. To the coaches: Ms. Kravchenko and Tracey Browne for dedicating their time and energy to the team. Under your coaching we improved a great deal throughout the season. Thank you very much for your guidance on and off the court.

Jason Cheung: A good setter, and a great captain.

Saints on Three!
Congratulations to the entire team for a job well done.
To all the OAC's, thanks for the memories.
For the returning players, get ready for next year!

The SAC Cross Country Team had a solid and respectable season this year, attending several meets and participating in a variety of events. The team of 30 worked hard to increase their performance and endurance by continual practise, regardless of poor weather conditions. The team attended meets at such schools as Trinity College, where they faced the dreaded "Mt. Trinity". The SAC 'renegades' also had many season's top finishers this year with boys who recorded several top ten finishes with stellar performances at various meets.

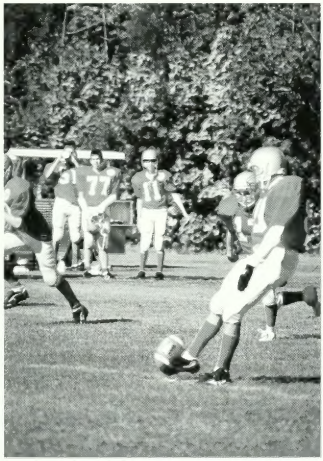
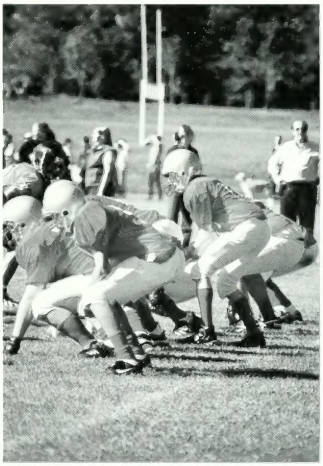
...a season of growth & experience





The Under sixteen football team began the season with great determination and enthusiasm. They played with a lot of heart as was demonstrated against UCC. Everyone on the team developed skills and improvement in team work was evident as they took on a powerful St. Mike's squad.

Congratulations to all the players on this team and great credit goes to captains: Mike Tzimas and Gordon Graham on the defense and Brian Chan and Jeff Johnstone on the offense. It was an exciting team to watch and fans wish them well next season.

This year's tier 2 soccer team has been a young team. The players lacked experience for the game so unfortunately they tended to be plagued by rookie errors such making good passes and the ability to know when to take the shot. The record this far has been 5 losses and 1 win. That one win was so far the highlight of the season; the team played its best with brilliant passes and shots on goal.

The player in charge this year around was Daniel Chong (AKA. Chicken) a veteran on the team.

Also worthy of honourable mention are Sheldon Lyn and Hun Q. They are veterans on the team. The team has the potential to become great but lacks in experience. However, if some of the players stick with the game you might just see them on the international football scene soon!

The Under 16 soccer team was lead by Ariel Absera - an up and coming star, while the MIP this season came to us from Bermuda - Scott Simmons used his speed and style to help him become a formidable player on the team.

This squad provided great moments for its fans and played with skill, flash and dazzle to dominate their opponents throughout the league. Congratulations on an outstanding season to coach Clements who gave steady encouragement to the players. The fans look forward to another great season in the coming Fall.

U15 Soccer

It has been a moderately successful season for the U15 soccer team with a record of more than 4 wins, 2 losses, and one tied game. Through out the season the team went through many battles on the soccer pitch, winning some and losing some.

The U15 squad gained much experience as they played on. It was leadership from people like Patrick McGrath and the whole team in general worked well together said Ravi. It was all these things which led them to a 6-0 victory against Lakefield. Their SAC spirit which they showed on and off the field carried them through tilll the end of the season.

This team played over ten games, lost one and won eight games. They tied two games in intensity packed finishes of the games. They won a tournament at Hillfield. Four games were won in this tournament to guarantee their victory. They were a fun team to watch and have many talented players like, Patrick McGrath, Elejandro, a Mexican, who displayed some amazing soccer moves, and all round skilful, enthusiastic and dedicated players.

'99 was a development year for our under thirteen-soccer team. With many new players and new to the passionate game of "futbol", we managed to have a lot of fun on the field. We won't mention what we placed but we'll mention the friendships we formed and the laughs we had.

The highlight of the season was our trip to Vancouver to participate in the CAIS tournament.The team spent a week playing very competitive soccer against private schools from all over Canada. The players were billeted with families and were treated superbly. Our MIP for the year was Jared Leslie and our MVP was goalie Charlie Abbott. Better luck next year guys. U12 Soccer

The team began the season with a couple of wins:3-0 and 4-1 over Pickering College and 4-1 over U.C.C. We smashed Ridley College 8-1 at Homecoming and had a great come-from-behind victory over Sterling Hall, 4-2. Our team's last win was against Ridley College, 5-2. From that day on everything went downhill. Our star player left to play with the U13 soccer team for the Vancouver tournament and we couldn't win a game for our lives. Even with the wacky humor of Ankush Sondhi our team was down in the dumps. Our star player came back for the CISAA tournament but it didn't help us. We lost the first game to U.C.C. in penalty shots and lost to Country Day 2-0. We'd like to thank Mr. Swan for coaching our team even though we didn't do so well. This was SAC's first U12 team in a great many years.

Tier 2 Volleyball is a sport of intimidation, raw power and hardcore determination. Well, Tier 2 teams may not be the most prestigious, most physically challenging, or most serious competitors, but that's not to say they can't have fun and maybe win a few games. The Tier 2 Volleyball squad is made up of people who love the sport. They don't care if they win or lose, as long as they get to play. As it happens, the team had a pretty good season, making it to the quarter finals ahead of many other school's First teams. This is a group with no fixed starting line up which would defeat the purpose of a Tier 2 team. Tier 2 teams are designed to give everyone a chance to play, no matter what the score. So whether or not they win or lose every game, at least they have fun. Winning is a first team goal, having fun is a second team goal. Tier 2 volleyball is not to be mocked, for most Tier 2 players go on to play on First Volleyball the following year. Of course, those who cease to make the First team are quite content to play another year on Tier 2 because it isn't about winning, but instead it's about enjoying the game. That is the legacy, that is what Tier 2 Volleyball is all about.

Jarryd Stock going for the big bump!

The St. Andrew's College under 16 Volleyball team was coached by Mr. Service. The team had three co captains: Jarryd Stock, Joseph Rothwell and Gian Carlos Trimarchi.

U16 volleyball had a record of 28 wins and 21 losses. This year's team was very young and full of talent. Out of the 11 boys on the team 9 of them were in grade 9.

One of the highlights of the season was playing in a tournament in Ridge Town where the boys stayed at the Wheel's Inn. Coach Service said that the key moments of this year's season were learning how to play as a team and learning from each other.

Special recognition goes out to Joseph Rothwell who received the team MVP award and to Breen Marien who received the team's MIP award. Congratulations on a great season.

The under 14 Volleyball team had an excellent start and finished with the CISAA Title. With the superb instructions from coach Ms. Angela Phillips, the team was able to finish with 1st place at the end of the volleyball season.

Ms. Phillips was extremely pleased with the results and the progress that has been made with these young athletes. With the amount of effort and time that has been put towards the whole 1st term season, the U14 team was able to achieve a goal that was hard to imagine at first.

Many hard times have been passed. Tough matches were always played and scores were somewhat close. Fortunately, these young athletes didn't like to give up. They were victorious all the time.

Next year, they will have to work a lot harder in order to defend this title because other independent schools that have joined the CISAA will want to take the title that rightfully belongs to the Under 14 Volleyball team!

The year 1999-2000 proved to be a stellar one for fencing. Our senior team entered nine provincial competitions beginning with the Ryerson University open in October and ending with the OCC Cadet and Junior Challenge in Waterloo in April. Our travels took us as far away as Ottawa in the East, Sault Ste. Marie in the North, and Waterloo in the West.

Highlights of the year include Kurt Schick and Shang-Jui Wang winning Bronze medals at the Apsimon Open in Ottawa in November; John Ngo and Willie Wai being awarded Silver medals in the team competitions at the Ontario Winter games in March; and Kurt and Shang-Jui being ranked 193 and 174 respectively in the Canadian Fencing Association's rankings for all of Canada. Thanks to Mr. Miklos, Mr. McDonald, and Mr. Myrans for coaching us, and to Mr. Bedard for his wonderful support.

MacPherson

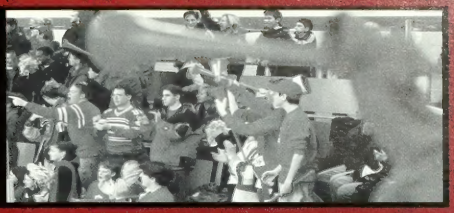
The MacPherson Tournament is a long standing tradition since 1983. The Tournament is a celebration of high school athletics and a showcase for top-level hockey from both Canada and the United States.

This year was the 17th annual MacPherson Tournament. As held every year, Friday, January 28 was the "Big Game" in which all students from St. Andrew's College were asked to come out and cheer for their SAC Saints. The Friday night game is the St. Andrew's equivalent to Hockey Night in Canada, and always draws a big crowd. Usually, the SAC Saints play a team from the United States, and this year was no different.

The Friday night game featured the St. Andrew's Saints and the New Hampton Huskies who hailed from New Hampshire, U.S.A. With New Hampton jumping out to an early 2-0 lead, things looked bleak for the SAC Saints.

By the end of the second period, SAC was down 4-3, and with only 15 minutes of game time remaining, many were unsure whether or not SAC would be able to pull off a victory. Then, early in the third, SAC fell down 2 goals, as the Huskies jumped out to a 5-3 lead. However, the Saints were not finished yet. By the end of the third period, the Saints had scored the two goals they needed to tie the game, and forced the Huskies into an extra time, 5 minute, golden goal, 4th period.

Tournament



In overtime, things seemed to be going well for the Huskies, as the Huskies continued to apply constant pressure, but, late into overtime, a slap shot blistered in towards the Huskies' net, took a deflection off of number 21, Rob Carter, and ricocheted into the back of the goal. The Saints had completed a 2 goal come back, and had won the Friday Night game, for the 3rd year straight.

Unfortunately, tournament victory was not in the cards for the SAC Saints. In the semi-final game against the St. Charles Cardinals, the Saints were unable to recover from a 4 goal deficit, and ended up losing the semi-final game. In the consolation game, the SAC Saints repeated their their victory over the New Hampton Huskies, and finished 3rd overall in the tournament.

Aside from a third place finish, the SAC First Hockey team enjoyed a wonderful tournament, which entertained and delighted students, friends and parents alike. Next year's tournament will be the 18th Annual MacPherson Tournament, and as to whether or not the SAC Saints will win, only time will tell.

Ski day

Hanging in the cafeteria after braving extreme weather.

The Mexican group: salsa on the slopes!

Getting ready to hit those hills!

Hitting the Slopes 2000 Style!

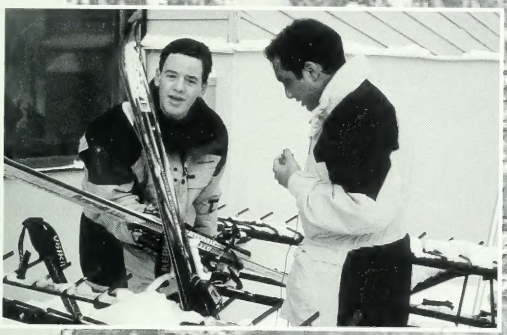
Every year there seem to be more and more snowboarders taking over ski day. While the skiers fly down the hill at lightning speeds, the snowboarders rip up the jumps, launch themselves into the air and grind on metal rail slides.

This year it was particularly cold, with a wind chill factor of –30. However, there was no mist or rain so this made the whole day bearable. The day started just like every other year. When we got there, the people who didn't bring their own skis had to wait in line while the rest dressed up to challenge the extreme weather.

Everyone took breaks frequently due to the cold, while the die hards enjoyed freezing their butts off for hours on the hills without breaks. There were very few injuries this year, compared to last year when Mr. Cowell broke both his wrists and Andrew Gosbee got a concussion.This year, pretty much everybody left as strong as bulls.

For those who ski and snowboard regularly, ski day is a day to gain or lose respect and reputation from fellow peers. In addition, for veterans, ski day is the time to show novices what you've learned and also to try new things to dazzle the crowd.

However, everyone says whether you choose to have a relaxing day of skiing, or push it to your limits, ski day is a great day for students to relax from the daily grind at school and an excellent chance to get out and have fun and demonstrate school spirit. Thanks to Mr. Staunton for keeping the tradition, and to Mr. Walden and the teachers for their organization and support.

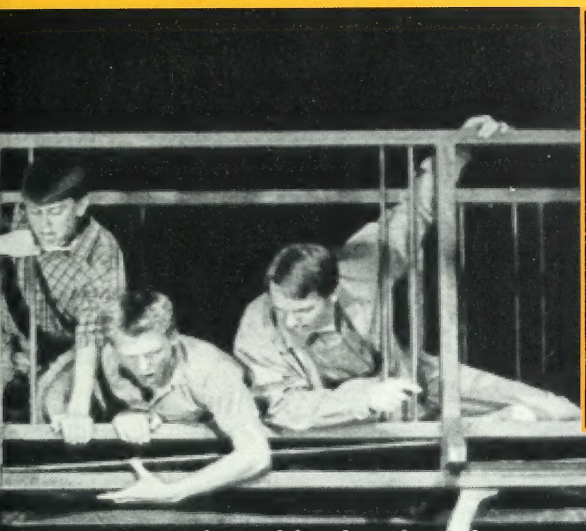


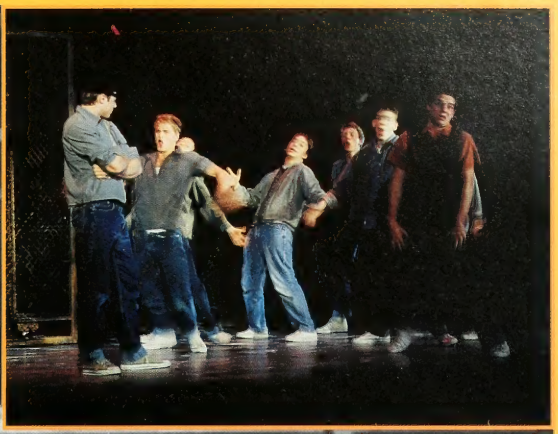
LIGHT

WEST SIDE STORY

This year, unlike most years, a musical, not a play was the highlight of the drama program. While many were afraid of singing and dancing on stage, what was accomplished in the end was an incredible performance that left the audience stunned.

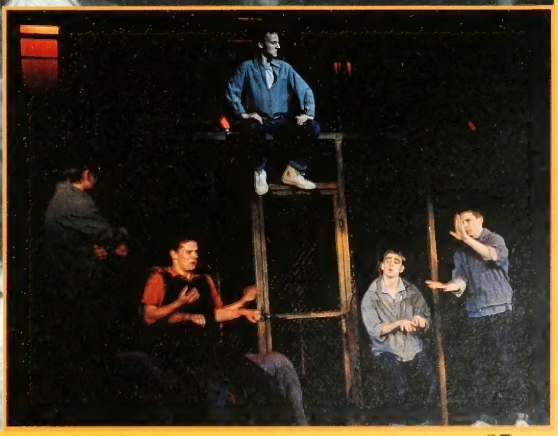
From incredible voices to backflipping stunts, Westside Story was undoubtedly one of the best, if not the best performance in SAC history. West Side Story was directed by Mr. Scoular and starred Steve Amiel as Tony, Nick Abraham as Riff, supported by a giant cast of stars. This year, many of the female roles were played by girls from the drama program at Unionville. They were a very welcomed addition to the cast and they performed with excellence.

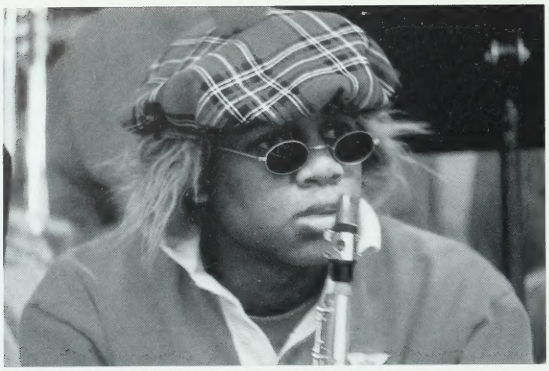


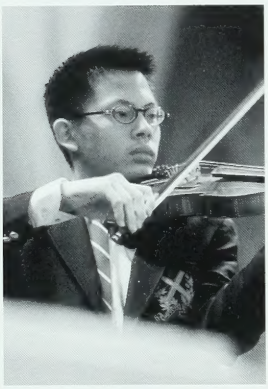


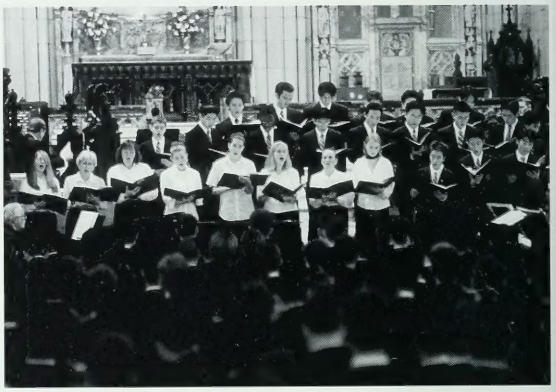
A lot was put into this play, both by the students and by the school. A new stage, a set brought in from Stratford, and professional choreography gave this play a professional look. What really stirred the audience was the cast's performance, due to countless hours of practice and dedication.

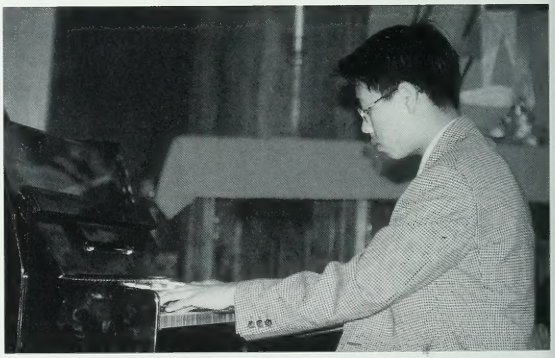
All in all West Side Story was a grade A performance and it will be remembered for years to come. As some of the cast graduates and goes on to University, many of them will come back to see future performances done by the school in memory of plays, like West Side Story, that have been performed when they were here. Congratulations everyone on a superb performance.

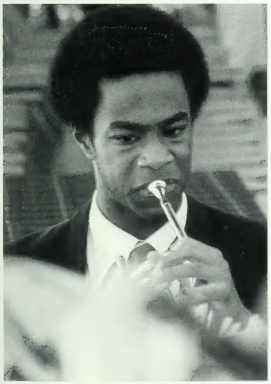


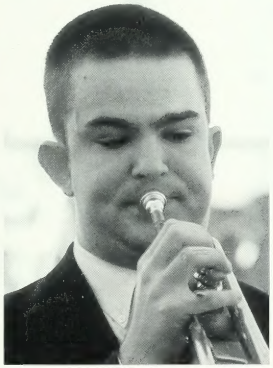


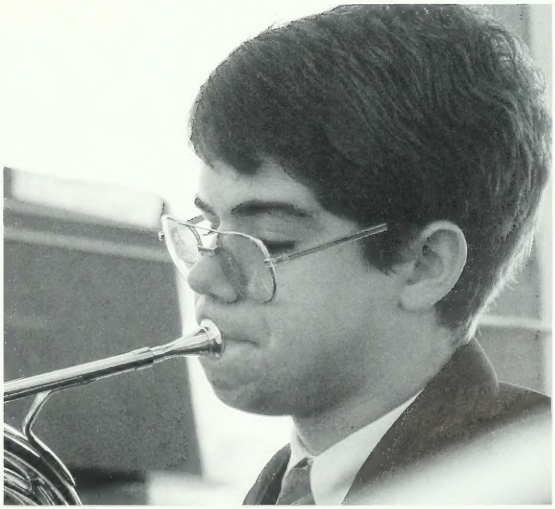




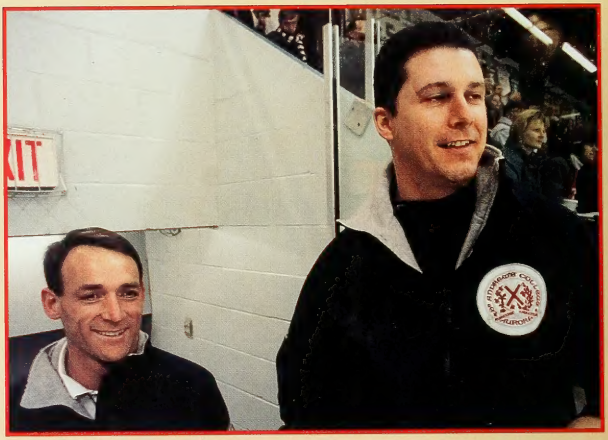


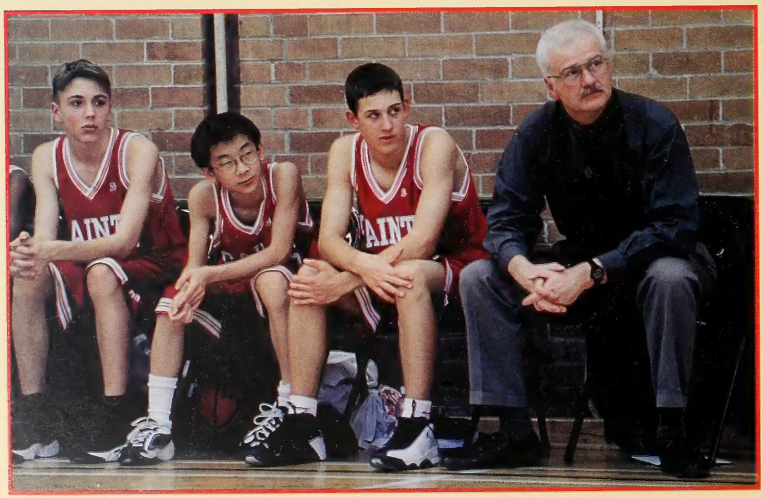


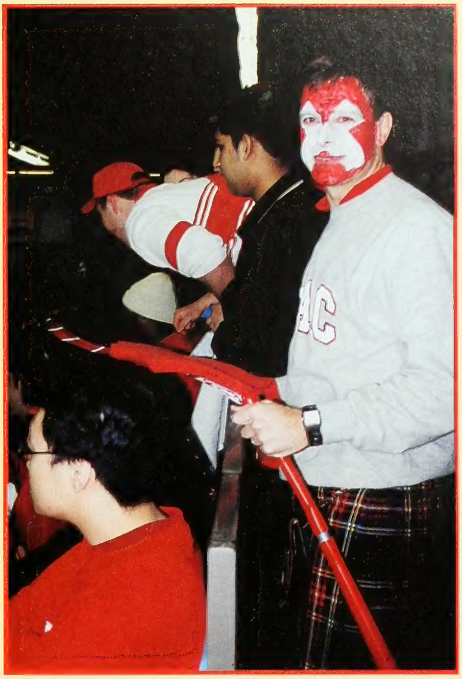




1999 - 2000







SEMI FORMAL 99

Every year, usually in November, a night come along when each SAC boy and his girlfriend (or sometimes just casual acquaintance) can enjoy a night out together. Its called the Semi. The Semi in November is the first of two Semi nights (the second being in February) which both lead up to the Cadet Formal held in late May.

The Semi has always been a big part of the first term because it really acts as the first chance for each SAC boy to show off his date to all his friends (and you should hear the stories told on the Monday's after). The night of Semi is always a great chance to spend some time together with the girl (or girls... Mr. William's!) that you care about.

The theme this year was "SACasino", and it gave both the boys and their dates a chance to try their hands at Black Jack, Roulette, Slots, and Craps. Each person was handed a mock $10,000 to gamble with when they arrived, and the goal was to have the most money by the end of the night. Needless to say, more money was lost then won, but since it wasn't real moula, no one minded, or had their legs broken! By the end of the night, a good time had been had by all, and the last semi of the millennium had gone off without a hitch.

Second Row: K. King, A. McNabb, A. Malamas, J. Kelson, R.Gaudio.
First Row: M. Smith, J.Albury, B. Birkett, T. Musewe, N. Ivandic, R.Chau, Mr. D. Josselyn Esq.

The First Basketball season was marked by heroic success and disappointing results. Approximately half the team were returning players while the rest were generally veterans of the St. Andrew's basketball system. Coach Josselyn continued to play a 10 man, 32-minute havoc inducing trap; the result, however, was somewhat less successful than it had been in previous years. Two early losses to perennial power house Huron Heights in the York Regional league and one to a new rival in St. Michael's in the CISAA, and the team was re-thinking its strategy. These early losses though provided plenty of experience and character for the team. This hard-earned knowledge helped the team to rebound and produce many close victories en-route to a championship in Quebec.

The team's new style was reminiscent of the solid half-court game that was previously a requisite of 2nds and U-16 basketball. Otherwise though, things remained pretty similar to the style of game spectators were used to seeing. Kevin Richards, the team's MVP for the second year, continued to harass opponents on defence with a type of kamikaze, energizer bunny-like vigour, while at the same time providing key offensive bursts that would leave the opposition in their tracks. Scoring was usually provided by sharp-shooter Nick Ivandic, who at times became so hot that he could not be stopped by double or even triple teams. At times the rookies also made their presence felt; Roger Chau who made it rain from behind the arc, Ken King and his big-man authority in a little man's body, Ryan Gaudio a vocal and talented little-man in a big-man's body, Josh Kelson a versatile utility player, and Alex Malamas who often provided a spark to the team on both offence and defence. In most teams, however, it is the graduating players that are the core of the team and this year was no different.

"heroism & heartache"

The team's chemistry as well as its grit and determination were more than evident in its ideal veterans including Mitch Smith, Blair Birkett, Justin "Smoke-Dog" Albury, Kaz, and Andrew McNabb.

After the slow start the team began to take-off and quickly amassed a number of victories. This period was epitomised in a tournament the team participated in while holidaying in Bermuda. The team went undefeated throughout the tournament and consistently pummelled teams by more than 30 points before finally capturing the championship. Like all good things, our streak had to come to an end, and did, abruptly, upon our return home.

We continued our excellent play for one more game against Williams High School, a team seeded higher than us in York Region after the regular season, before a much more talented Vaughan squad would end any further hopes of advancing to OFSAA. It was on the CISAA side of the coin where we would experience the greatest disappointment.

Our first round of the playoffs would come against a Ridley team that we had previously handled, the result, a loss. However, throughout it al we never gave up and continued to remain a cohesive bunch of friends and team-mates.

The team would like to thank all those who helped make this an enjoyable season. We wish the graduating players luck in future endeavours and look forward to next season.

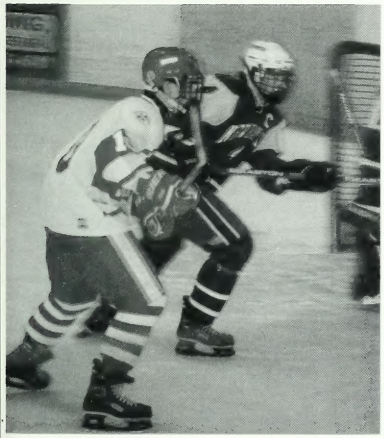
An outstanding season, for an outstanding team. First Hockey had an excellent season this year: a third place at the Macpherson tournament, 2nd at the Nichols tournament in Buffalo, and 1st place in the Confederation Cup in Newfoundland. The team was 2nd in York region to a team that went on to win the provincial title.

Coaches Mr. Al Dunford and Mr. Stephen Kimmerer lent direction and gave great guidance to the team while veteran Brian Chisholm and team captain Alain Chicoine, lead this team to great things. After the unfortunate loss of the star goalie to another school, Matt Tsjui had big shoes to fill, but did a fantastic job as the team's primary goalie. Everyone played well, practiced hard, and pulled together when it was needed.

Although there were some slight bumps in the road, the season turned out fine in the end. A highlight was when The school cheered on the team at the Macpherson tournament: they won the game that the students watched, but unfortunately had to settle for 3rd place in the tournament.

SAC hockey has enjoyed a tradition of excellence for a long time. Undoubtedly SAC 1st hockey will be a force to be reckoned with for a long time to come.



SAC SWIMMING

The U20 Team enjoyed a good season. Scott Simmons added some depth to help replace the loss of three veterans who graduated last year. Our only competition was UCC. The championship meet promised to be close and UCC prevailed by a mere 25 points. SAC placed second out of eleven schools. The highlight of the season was our OFSAA team. Every swimmer came home with at least one medal. Sam Hsu & Scott Simmons won Bronze; Peter Vogel won Bronze and Silver Medals; and Ryan Devald won Bronze, Silver and Gold medals. For Ryan it was his second Gold Medal in the 100 metre Individual Medley in as many years.

SAC Squash

Despite being defending champions for the past two years, right from the get-go Crescent School, with the addition of a new #1 player, became the team to beat.As the season progressed, it became evident that the only two teams who would challenge for the league title were S.A.C. and Crescent, who were both undefeated by any other school during the regular season.

In the final tournament, the 1st team of Wyn-Ron Cheong, Asad Haque, Ryan Brandham, Al Lalani, Jason Wong, and Adam Guy battled hard but finished a close second to the powerhouse Crescent team. The tournament was highlighted by Ryan Brandham's victory in the B-Flight finals and Wyn-Ron Cheong's thrilling, 5-game battle against the #2 from Crescent in the A-flight semis, which he unfortunately lost but put on a great show for the upwards of thirty people who crowded around the courts to watch this intense battle.

This year Mr. Staunton was kind enough to introduce us to Chris Duratney, an extremely talented amateur player from the Toronto Cricket Club. A special thanks goes out to Chris who helped coach the team and put a great deal of time and effort into the squash program. Mr. Rush was another key in our coaching staff who always provided excellent advice and new techniques. Last but not least we thank Mr. Cameron, whose selfless dedication will surely be missed by the graduating players.

Under 14 squash may not have been the best team in the CISAA Under 14 league but it certainly had the most fun.

The boys' most enjoyable games were against Appleby and Ridley because of their co-ed teams. Mr. Penton and Ms. Maa coached a team with lots of beginners and improved their skills to higher levels. Ms. Nicole Maa (a co-op student) attended all of the practices and trained the boys for the better.

Colin Lowe earned the MIP award and the team could not have survived without Armaghen Chisti the MVP. Sinclair Bean

Nordic Skiing

This year's nordic skiing team was made up of many new faces, all ready to learn this new, exciting sport. With Randall Blum being the only returning skier, some work had to be done. However, the team worked hard and the new skiers (John Lyons, Ryan Aarts, Mike Campbell, Andrew Martin, Armughan Chishti, and for a while Eric Heizer) learned enough to get them through the first races.

Highlights of the year were the York Region race, where the team swept the podium clinching the Senior Boys Championship. This win qualified the team for OFSAA, which was being held in Sudbury Ontario. Although there was a lack of snow, the team placed well in OFSAA, all reaching personal goals of high standards.

Since the nordic skiing team was also competing as the biathlon team, there was lots of skiing to be done. Coaches Mr. Gaertner and Mr. McCue helped the team to develop their nordic skiing and biathlon skills. These skills should make the team ready for another winning season next year.

Our team captain Warren Byrne '00 said it well when he stated, "It seems like every year is a rebuilding year for the ski team." Once again, our ski teams struggled to be competitive at the ISAA level. With the graduation of our team's cornerstone Pete Dyson, and the early season injury of young prospect Campbell Gordon, it seemed from the very beginning that this season was just not meant to be.

Despite our struggles, though, we had a great year with some shining individual performances by Warren Byrne, and newly returned Tier II Hockey 'reject' Jamie Near.

At the junior levels, skiers like Dylan Edminson and John Housser provide promise for the team's future. Special thanks go out to our new coach, Mrs Kowaltschuk who made the season fun and exciting for all of us. We will miss her next year. Congratulations to our MVP Warren Byrne, and MIP Jacob Marcinkowski. Pat Harris will lead the team to victory next season.

2nd Basketball

The 2nd basketball team took a while to get adjusted, but with the aid of the new head coach, Mr. Shrimpton, the team managed to get through with a reasonably well played season. The team had two members from last year and the rest were new on the squad. The team initially began with 15 basketball members, but due to academic struggles and other problems, five members left the team.

Back Row: Mr. C. Shrimpton Esq., B.Lee, R. Lo, S. Leung, M. Cook, J. Ramlochan, V. Ip

Front Row: I. Leung, J. Lee, H. Kim, F. Hussein, N. Stuart

Although they worked hard in games, a lot of times they fell heartbreakingly short within only a few points. However, due to the diligence and dedication of the players, the 2nds basketball team rebounded near the end of the season. In their last game they lost to the number one CDS team by only one point.

The well deserved MVP was Jan Ramlochan and the MIP was Ivan Leung who improved with each practice. The remaining veterans of the 2nd team will have a much more challenging season next year when a few players will graduate to1st basketball.

Basketball at the under 16 level this year was challenging. After a difficult start to the season the team appeared to be coming together but about mid way through the season we suffered a loss that took one of the key players off the court and on to the bench for the rest of the season.

From there it was mostly down hill, but all of the players on the team this year have made a dramatic improvement and should be strong contenders for next year's first basketball.

Special commendation goes out to Brian Brian Lin, Austin Hracs, and to the rest of the team who really did give it their all.

Under 15 Basketball

This year the players demonstrated a great deal of spirit and desire throughout the season. All the players were enthusiastic and dedicated to improving their basketball skills and worked together as a team.

Under 14 Basketball

With eight players returning from the strong under 13 team last year, and five new outstanding players, our team was looking good right from the get go. Fortunately, Mr. Hanson had coached the U13 team last year, so he was well aware of the returning players' weaknesses and strengths, and with all his experience he changed the game of some of the newcomers from "driveway hoops" to serious, competitive basketball.
At the UCC tournament the undefeated saints found themselves matched with the also undefeated home team UCC blues in the championship finals. Thanks to a great save by Francis "Tough Guy" David-Coderre in the last seconds of the game, and great shooting games by both Tim "Book it" Birkett and Adam "Softy" Hoffman, the saints prevailed with a close two point victory.
This trend of winning continued throughout most of the season. The saints had been undefeated through 18 games and had picked up two tournament victories at UCC and Ashbury along the way. It wasn't until the UCC blues put an end to our streak on our own home court. The loss ended the dream of a perfect season, but it also made the team realise that we were not unbeatable, and made us work harder for the final tournament. The first two games were won rather easily with some great playing by Erik "Get out of my house" Swenker and Denis "Don't leave me open" Wong, but we found ourselves again in the finals with UCC. Thanks to a great performance on both ends of the floor by Brian "Sit down" Harvey and Philippe "Lightning" Dabo, and some great support from parents, the saints captured the CISAA plaque with a 29 point win over the UCC blues. The U14 saints finished the year with a 26-1 record, four tournament victories and, most of all, an awesome season!

The U13 team went into their last week 11th out of 13 teams. They played in a four team qualifier the Wednesday before the final tournament against the eighth, ninth and tenth place teams for the final spot in the tournament. They ended up winning the qualifier and were ranked eighth in the final tournament. They played very well losing to the first placed York school 43-24, and then to Country Day 39-31. This was good enough to get them sixth place in the tournament, and an end to a good season.

U16 Hockey

The Under 16 Hockey team had a very strong season this year. The team was lead by their captain and MVP Matt Mitchell. The team was filled with promising young players that are no doubt bound for the first team next year.

There were many candidates for the MIP award but in the end it was awarded to two players; Jonathan Suddaby and David Domingues. The independent schools did not provide a whole lot of competition for this talented team with one or two exceptions. Despite going into the final tournament as the number one seed we won our first four games of the tournament including a convincing win against St. Mike's but they proved to be the better team the following day in the final. This team was a very talented group of players and quality people.

Under 14 Hockey: a time of growth and development and a crucial stage for young hockey players. It is a time to fine tune skills for future years of senior hockey at SAC. This year was no different.

Coached by Mr.Galajda, Mr.English, and newcomer James Allen, the season was destined for fun and success. As with any U14 team, it was filled with new faces, but also had a few veterans to lead the way. Fast, hard working forwards, matched with strong defence and goaltending created a combination that was a force to be reckoned with.

As individuals they couldn't achieve victory, but once the team jelled together, winning was natural. They showed us new skills and techniques that will surely prepare them for under 16 and eventually first hockey.

The team leaders were Captain Scott Lennox and assistants Billy Burke and Darryl Stock, who were always there to get the team going...and when that didn't work, they relied on goaltending efforts by Blake Dalton and Charles Abbott.

TRACK & FIELD

Joining the Track & Field team is a task that requires great determination and daily commitment. A devoted track & field member is required to run every day in spite or rain or snow.

However, the discipline is rewarding and fitness is guaranteed. The high standards set by the coaches paid off this year. All team members worked terrifically hard to achieve high standards and this team was one of the outstanding leaders in the pack of CIS schools. Congratulations to all on an excellent season.

Perhaps one of the most memorable traditions at SAC is the Church Parade. This is a time when all students of SAC don their splendid red tunics and impressive Gordon tartan kilts. Then while the cameras are flashing, and parents and families are waving, hundreds of people line Mt. Pleasant avenue to view the march. With pipes and drums playing, proud SAC students march with precision and inwardly smile while thinking "I'm proud to be an Andrean!"

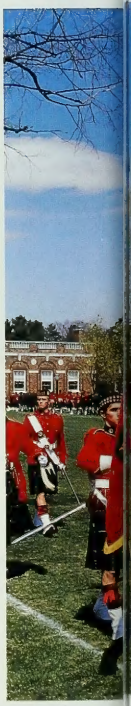
As according to tradition, the Battalion marched to St. Paul's Church where an "eyes right" was extended to the dignitaries viewing the corps. Entering the church, each cadet removed his glen to attend a special service. Afterwards, cadets were dismissed to join their families or to board buses back to College. It was an impressive and memorable day. The annual tradition of the church parade is just one of the many special privileges of attending St. Andrew's College.

Quit ye Like Men, be strong

.. from Church Parade to Headmaster's Inspection

The 95th annual Headmaster's Parade on Wednesday, May 3rd, 2000, was by all intents and purposes a successful tune-up in final preparations for the Inspection. We were lucky enough to have glorious weather, though it was a little hot in those uniforms for the boys. Consider ing this, the Headmaster, Mr. Staunton, said he thought they exhibited a first-class level of self-discipline. He added that Drum Major Stephen Amell and Pipe Major Devon Ajram were to be congratulated for an inspiring performance by the Pipes and Drums.

The Battalion Headquarters, consisting of Lieutenant Colonel Ryan Brandham, Major Iain Myrans, and Chief Warrant Officer Gordon Ozawa all felt this parade was a very useful tool in the mastering of the parade sequence, giving them the confidence to carry out a flawless inspection for the big crowd on Saturday. Major John Stephens, head of cadets, and Captain Brian McCue were also very satisfied with the day's proceedings.



95th Cadet Inspection

Traditions are successfully maintained into the new millennium

After weeks of preparation, polishing and precision, anxious Officers and ranks of 142 St. Andrew's College Highland Cadet Corps awoke on the morning of May 6th to a glorious sight. The skies were clear and by 7 am the staff were busily arranging chairs, setting up tables and organising the sound systems for the most important day of the year for the Cadet Corps. The day began slowly with a morning brunch and a leisurely pace for dressing in our traditional scarlets and kilts. At 11:30 the Battalion gathered in the chapel for the announcements of Prefects for next year. The sight and sound of 450 scarlet clad Andreans accompanied by the chapel organ during service was a fine tribute to the day ahead.

Regimental Sergeant Major Gord Ozawa called for the bugler to sound the fall in and the parade stepped smartly with the Pipes and Drums leading under the direction of Pipe Major Devon Ajram and Drum Major Steve Amell. Deputy commanding Officer Major Iain Myrans took over from the RSM and the Cadet officers, having finished their promenading at the side of the Quad, were ordered onto parade with the traditional bugle call. Captains Blair Birkett (Memorial), Whyn-Ron Cheong (Flavelle), Nick Abraham (Smith), Justin Williams (Ramsey), Jeffrey Lo (Sifton) and Graeme Brown (Macdonald-Laidlaw) dressed their companies in preparation for the arrival od Cadet Commanding Officer, Lieutenant-Colonel Ryan Brandham.

The Reviewing Officer for this year, LCol (ret) Ian A. Purdie C.D., attended St. Andrew's College from 1953-55 graduating as the Cadet Commanding Officer. He inspected th Battalion and the march past in colum of route. The Headmaster congratulated the troops and thanked the many staff and volunteers that had been involved in the Corps' training since September and remarked how pleased he was that the Companies rose to the occasion to make the day a most memorable event for all. A spirited dismissal call dismissed the scarlet tunics that had shone distinctly agains the green grass of the quad. Boys suddenly dispersed in all directions and thoughts of polishing buttons wei quickly replaced by thoughts of prepa ration for the evening's gala Cadet Formal.

FOR SERVICE IN NEPAL

Giancarlo Trimarchi on the trail over Namche

The Beautiful Thayngboche Monastery

This year's SASSIN expedition lived up to its expectations in every way! It was definitely a life changing experience for all and it provided each one of us with an insight into some of the other parts of our very big planet. Team members included Adam Brander, Ben Craig, Tom Haney, Josh Lim, John Lyons, Iain Myrans, Paul Perrier, and Giancarlo Trimarchi. The team leaders this year were Mr. Jones and Mr. Kimmerer.

The six weeks went by very fast and there was not a moment when we weren't kept busy doing something. After 28 hours of flying and stopovers, we arrived in Singapore. Two days later we boarded flight SQ 414 to Katmandu and we flew for another five hours and landed in the capital city of Nepal. The city is nothing like you could imagine or prepare yourself for. After a brief three day stay in the city, we boarded a small Canadian made Twin-Otter aircraft that carried us to the starting point of our trek: Lukla. From there we hiked and tented for two and a half weeks. During this time, we summited Goyko Ri and Mt. Kalapathar, the latter being at an altitude of 18,200 feet. This provided us with a spectacular view of the surrounding mountains -- one of which being Mt. Everest. What barren place! Only rock and ice in all directions.

The next two and a half weeks were spent in the village of Khumjung, where we would be doing our community service work. Some of the projects that we worked on included the restoration of a local chorten, which is a religious monument; fencing repair; teaching computer skills to staff members at the small, remote school there; fixing the village's water supply; restoring mani-stones; and roof repairs to the school. Lastly, our most important community service project was getting e-mail working at the local school. This provided the remote village with an invaluable link to the rest of the world. As you can see, we were constantly busy throughout the entire trip. The expedition provided a valuable service and offered SAC students many remarkable opportunities. One hopes that this unique tradition will continue in order to enrich the lives of many future Andreans.

... an inside look at SAC's House

Boarding Life

There's no life like it! Boarders do it and see it all! Residences are their homes away from home and you'v gotta love it! Life on the inside is vibrant, demanding, sometimes frustrating, but certainly never dull. Residents enj the ups and downs of each residence which abound with colourful characters and the occasional eccentric. Even the daily routines are made more memorable due to the characte thrown together and who somehow manage to get along desp the apparent contradictions in personalities. The whole expe ence is a character building exercise as much as any other fa of the school. Boarders can hold their own in any regard. By end of the year, despite the care / nurturing (sometimes 'fussi) of ever present Housemasters and dons, the typical boarder flourishes by living by his wits, adapting to the rough and tumble of rooming with various misfits and excels in water sports in the halls, cramming for last minute tests and exams and bumming assorted items of food, supplemented by large infusions of pizza and chinese food delivered at all hours of the evening. Putting up with snoring room mates, someone else's poor taste in music or bizarre personal habits and hygiene are all part of creating the ideal Andrean: one who is compassionate, tolerant and forgiving, who, yet at the same time exerts a tough independence and commendable resourcefulness and inner strength. The leaders of tomorrow receive their first baptisms of fire in the melting pots of SAC's houses today.

Ramsey House took on a whole new look this year with our new Housemaster, Mr. Galajda, at the reins. The days of chapel skipping without an excuse and quietly driving off campus for a Mels binge were over. We all found out pretty soon about the wrath of the "Giraffe Handler". EB's were hurled at all those who failed to abide by Ramsey Law.
However, all this talk about rules and punishment doesn't mean that we didn't have time to enjoy ourselves. The creation of "Timbit Wednesdays" was a hit in not only our house but also other Houses, as many students from other houses would join in on the discussions in hope of getting some timbits for themselves. The discussions varied from "Who is going to win the Stanley Cup" to the next "formal or semi after party". At the other end of the hallway, "Kids in the Hall" would hold open forums and "court" and would often "just" make chapel in time before the doors closed.

Ramsey House enjoyed many successes this year with winning the Cross Country Run, a close second in the Track and Field Meet and were the winners of The Housser Trophy for most clan points accumulated over the year. We ended off the year with the "1st annual Ramsey House Oscars" and a successful BBQ. The awards were presented as follows:

1. Most EB's served?	Tejus Ajmera
2. Most Likely to be seen creating spares?	Eric Mancini
3. Most likely to take on Mr.Galajda in a cage match?	Gord Birkett
4. Best Dressed stud?	Ross Marshall
5. Most Likely to Become a movie Star in exotic films?	Luc Zoratto
6. Most Likely to go to jail?	JanMichael Ramlochan
7. Most Likely to become a born-again Christian?	Adam Brander
8. Most Likely To drop out of University?	Ian Sinclair
9. Most Likely to get kicked out of school?	Dave Woodcock
10. Most Likely to become a parent first?	Justin Williams

As the year comes to a close it is time to say goodbye to our Ramsey Grads and wish them the best of luck in all their future endeavors. And to one last word from the giraffe himself "moments change, but memories last for ever". I..S. Mike Craig

Thanks go out to our "Head of House" Austin Porter and our "Co-Heads" of House, Ikhaz Kadiri and Michael Craig.
Thanks for making this a great year! dg

ROBSON'S CHOICE

With Greg Thompson at the helm and seniors like Walsh, Ozawa, Rothwell, Gariepy, Rogers, Myrans, Haque & Crispi and others to give guidance it was clear this ship was on an unforgettable cruise through turbulent waters.

Through thick & thin and despite the many challenges along the way, this House gave its all. They demonstrated they were serious contenders in all school events and participated in more than their share to win laurels and accolades at prizeday, sports, track & field etc. Give them a wide berth in the future - Smith House is right on course!

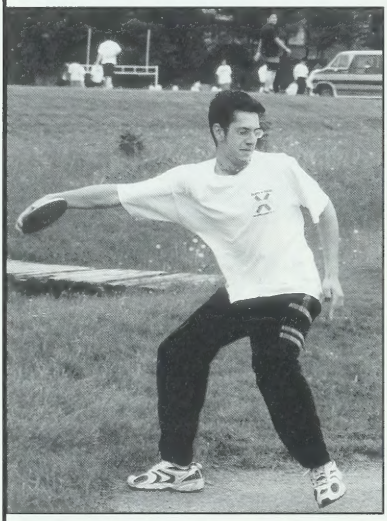
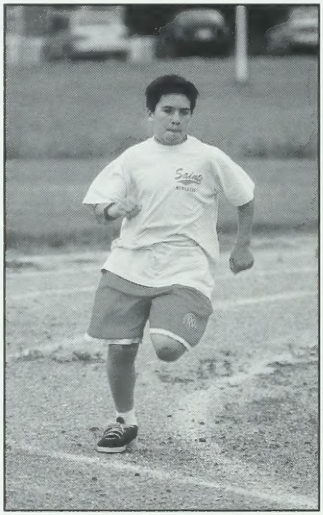
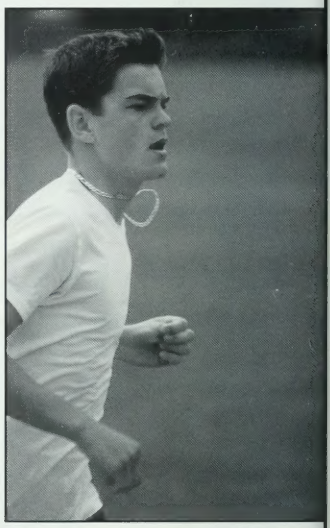
Although the Upper School Housemasters like to pretend... it's the MacHouse Gielameister who calls the shots!

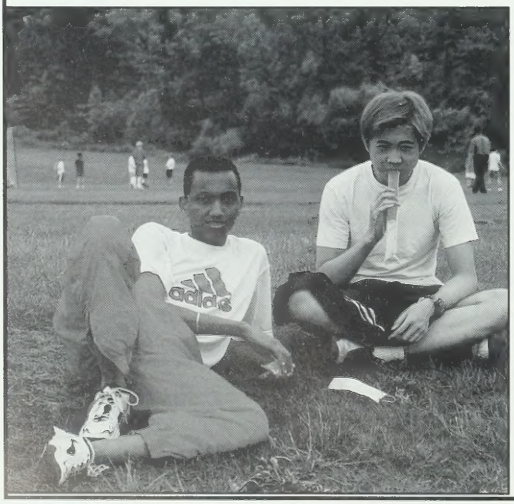
Here's where it all begins - the spawning grounds where the small fry are nurtured and grow to thrive later on in the larger ponds of Upper School. What an active place it is! Plenty of fun and activities that are conducted under the watchful and caring eye of Housemaster Mr. Giel and his assistant Housemaster, Mr. Tsioros. Added help and support were given by Mr. Penton and a team of dedicated duty masters. Combine the energy and enthusiasm of GAP student Mr. Maclean, mix with the energy of dozens of denizens, spice it up with the Mexican contingent and allow to simmer for a while - VOILA - a strange and potent brew guaranteed to knock your socks off. It was an excellent year! A good time was enjoyed by all!

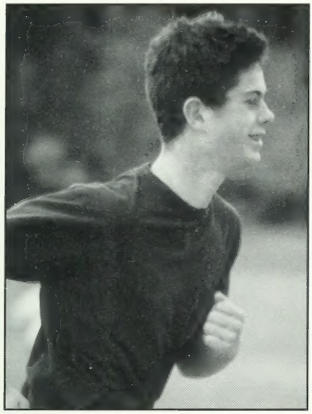
Track and Field Day 2000!

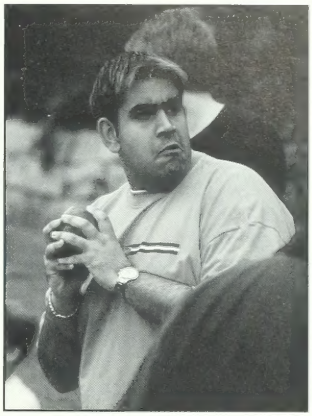












As Always, Track and Field day this year was a blast. We had Mr. Butcher and Mr. Rush dodging shot-put balls, Mr. Halstead measuring the distance of his jumpers, Mr. Bedard trying not to get hit in the head with a javelin, and finally Mr. Tsioros with his gun. Doobie and Mr. Ryan took were busy keeping track of the results as they came in from their hide-out in the van. Oh, and we mustn't forget the freezies!

As far as the events were concerned, the clouds didn't keep us away. The Long and Triple Jump pits were always active along with the track, shot-put, javelin, high-jump, and ball toss venues. To remember all of this fun we've dedicated a few pages of this book to the day so have a look and enjoy!

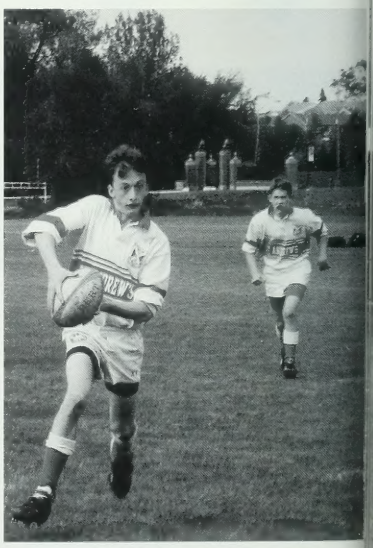
With a record of 17 wins, 7 losses and a tie against reigning OFSAA winners Barrie Central, the season was a great success. We visited Nova Scotia in early April and won the three games there. We also won the Plate at the NIS Tournament at TCS. We defeated Fr. Bressani to take the York Region title for the third time in our four years of participation. This ranked us 5th at OFSAA, but, after constant pressure in their half, we yielded to UCC in the quarter finals. In CISAA playoffs, we lost an exciting semi-final by 15-18 at UCC, who were our undisputed nemesis this year.



The team was one of the most coachable yet, and Jason Lamarche ('93) and I enjoyed working with them. There was a combination of experience in provincial players Alex Gawel (captain), Gord Birkett, Robbie Carter and D.J.Bennett; size in Ali and Olivier Manigat; and speed in Kevin Richards. The dedication of veterans Mike Crispi, Al Chicoine, Alex Naghi, Warren Byrne, Kyle Walsh, Justin Williams and Steve Amell, and the promise of Oliver Radley - Smith, Jan Michael Ramlochan, Gord Graham, Dave Richardson and Jordan Dudley all made for memories of an outstanding group of athletes. With the addition of talent from 2nd's and under 16, next year will be even better!

MVP: Sam Rothwell
MIP: Ray Yeh

Facing some very skilled, strong opposition and often first teams of smaller schools such as Holy Trinity, Lakefield and Country Day, the Tier II rugby season on paper may not be viewed as overly impressive. However, considering that nine of our core players never played the game before, we indeed made some miraculous leaps and bounds to the point that by the end of the year we were competitive with some of our stronger opponents.

Special mention must go to our MIP Ray Yeh who for a first year player displayed a keen enthusiasm and aptitude for the game and our MVP Sam Rothwell for his outstanding effort, refined ability and a keen dedication to rugby at SAC.

U14 Rugby

Ever since its inception 6 years ago, interest has continued to grow in the U14 rugby program. This year was no exception with 42 young men trying out for the 12 starting positions. The team played 6 regular season games unbeaten, outscoring the opposition 199 - 31. Arguably, the best technical performance came with a 64 - 7 trouncing of Appleby College in which our second phase play was so effective that the opposition were at times totally confused. The forwards under the inspired coaching of John-Ross Lennox were a force to be reckoned with, and the backs were unstoppable. After the game the Appleby coach said that this was the best team he had ever seen at this age level.

First Tennis

To ensure a strong season, the first tennis team went to White Oakes in St. Catherines for training camp. While there, the team had lots of experience and had great team bonding. Even early in the season, the team managed to do extremely well in the early bird tournament. This proved to be no different in the season when the team achieved a 2nd place overall. The strong veteran leadership of the two captains Nicholas Ivandic and Wyn Ron Cheong backed by assistant captain Tarek Merchant built a solid backbone for the team, which allowed for many close games to be won. Sadly, most of the players will be graduating this year and each will be remembered for their individual unique character. Nicolas Ivandic will be remembered for his powerful serves, Tarek Merchant for his perfect groundstrokes, Ken Ho for always keeping the ball in play, and Chris, also known as Kentucky Derby. Some returning players are Ryan Cheung who never seems to remember the ball is only supposed to bounce once, Derek Choi with his winning attitude, and Chris Cheng who is improving more and more everyday.

One memorable incident happened during practice one day; Derrick and Chris M. were playing a doubles match against Chris C. and Ryan. In the middle of the game, Ryan smashed a serve that hit Chris C. squarely on his face. The ball knocked Chris over and bounced across two tennis courts. After the incident, Chris was totally disoriented, Ryan repeatedly apologized to Chris while Chris M. and Derrick laughed. Quit ye like men; be strong!

Tier 2 Tennis enjoyed a fair season this year; it was one that was filled with up's and down's. The team was coached by Mrs. Kowaltschuk and it displayed great improvement throughout the season. Their first match against UCC was a struggle, but during the final CISAA Tournament, the TII Tennis team gave it all they got and placed second in the league. With improvements made to line-up and strategy, SAC was able to beat Rosseau Lake College, and 1 team from UCC. However, unfortunately, the T2 Tennis team eventually lost to UCC's second team that arrived that day.

With the tremendous improvement over the course of the season, the MIP of the team has spent every minute he could to practice his skills even if it meant staying late after practice. With his dedication for improvement, the award went to Dennis Wong. MVP went to Patrick Harris, a player who was agreeable and versatile at playing as any either singles or doubles.

With just 7 people on the team, everybody was crucial and important during every match against other schools. The team will be heading to the top next year.

...late starters...strong finishers!

The U16 team played with a lot of enthusiasm and spirit. They were keen and dedicated players despite the amount of time they spent 'mopping' up on the courts. This was due to the incredible amount of reain/snow/sleet/hail, etc. that was experienced in April. The common phrase "practice? ...what practice" was said by all because it was usually 3 degrees below zero and snowing!

It was no surprise that early matches caught the team by surprise but the final tournament demonstrated that this team could really come together and play with lots of spirit. In the end, the team played with pride and definitely gave more than a 100! effort.

Congratulations to MVP Drew McLean and to a hard working Jose Uribe who was our MIP.

U 14 Tennis

Although this year was not a 'banner' year for the U14 tennis team, the players showed skilful play and battled their opponents as well as the weather with equal determination. On and off the court, team members were polite, friendly and fun to be around. They were enthusiastic ambassadors for the school. The team was led by a core of very talented Mexican players who encouraged all to develop their skills.

During the 3rd term, it was never hard to find our MIP - Matt Middleton, who, regardless of the weather, was always able to convince someone to hit tennis balls with him. Our MVP also improved greatly over the last two years. Paired with Levin Maaskant, Matt Gnyp won 3 matches at the CISAA tournament. Congratulations to all on a fun season.

Once again, this year, the junior golf program was represented by some very talented golfers. The team had good depth and when we were allowed, we were able to field three competitive two man teams. In the first tournament we finished 3rd, 6th and 8th. The other tournaments restricted our entries to one or two. The overall results for the season were SAC Junior A comprised of Adam Hoffman, J. P Suddaby, David Nudds and Brent Brandham with 3 3rd place finishes and a 4th place in the final tournament earning a total of 34 points and a final ranking of 5 out of 33.

The SAC Junior B team comprised of Josh Gartner and Brent Brandham was allowed to participate in three tournaments. They captured 2 1st and a 6th place finish, including a 1st in the final tournament for double points. They earned a total of 42 points and a final ranking of 2nd. Josh finished 1st in the final tournament shooting a 69.

The other members of the team were Clement Yau who played on the C team and also substituted in when required on the Senior B team. Rob Ferguson, Campbell Gordon, John MacIver and Ryan Poroznik were not entered in any tournaments but it is in them that we see our future.

The Most Improved Golfer award goes to J.P Suddaby, and the Most Valuable Golfer is Josh Gartner.

This season was one of the most successful in the School's 101 year history. Led by Skipper Nick Abraham, the team completed a very wet season undefeated, defeating UCC and Ridley twice and TCS once. The second TCS game was cancelled due to wet conditions.

The team was a truly international one with players from Bermuda, Jamiaca, Antigua, Barbados, United Arab Emirates and Canada. The boys 'jelled' as a group from the opening practice and encouraged one another during the long and exciting matches.

The team received excellent bowling from first year players Zoheb Saleem and Warren Chang. Saleem took seven wickets in the opening match against UCC and fom that point on became the "workhorse" in terms of attack. Other steady bowling performances were put in by Nick Abraham, Daniel aka. "Chicken" Chong, Matt "Pilgrim" Fullerton, and Josh "Gummie-Bear" Delmas.

Outstanding batting was by Nick Abraham (55 runs - Not Out - vs. UCC), Josh Delmas (32 runs vs. Ucc) and Daniel Chong (17 runs vs. TCS).

The team would like to thank Rob MacLean, our Australian GAP student for his help all season and Jason Bayley for performing the difficult job of Scorer.

Since the team only loses two boys from this season's squad, the future of Cricket at SAC appears strong.

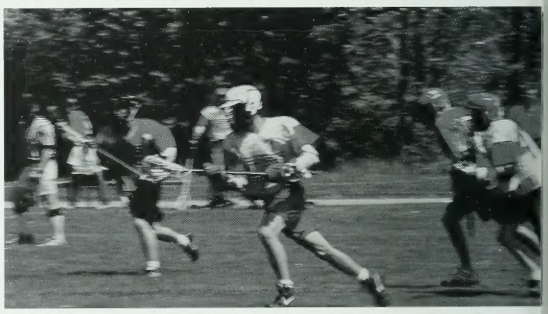
FIRST LACROSSE



The First Lacrosse team had a great season this year. Opposing teams had to face the likes of such beasts as Forbes Lilford and Jack Popiel.

Graeme Brown was a great goal tender for the team. The expert coaching from Mr. Robson and Mr. Cowell, not only gave this team a great season, but all the returning players have benefitted from their experience and will be ready to fight hard next year.

The team had only 5 graduating players and a pile of grade 10's who will be there for the next few years. Congratulations to the team on another successful season.

Congratulations to Sammy Lam!
#1 in the Province!

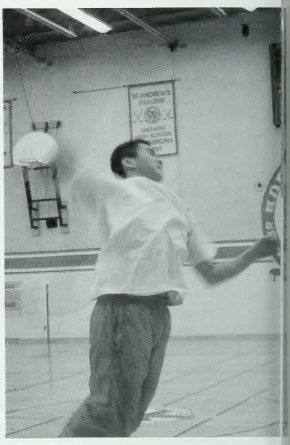
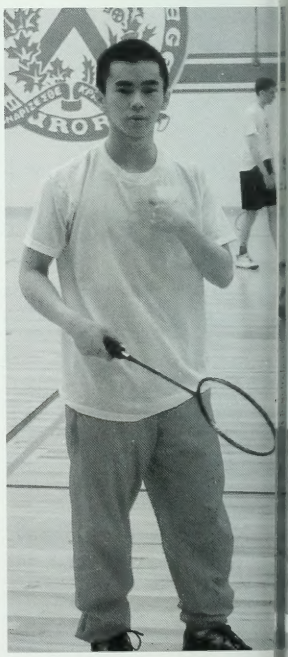
MVP: Sammy Lam
MIP: Ricky Luk

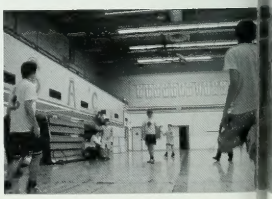


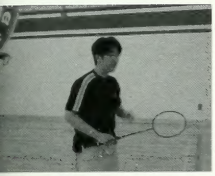
Once again, the first badminton team was led to triumph by Samuel Lam. There are no doubts about Sam Lam's ability on the battlefields of badminton. During the OFSAA tournament, Samuel Lam dominated in 1st place making him first in the province of Ontario with Ricky Luk following a respectable fifth place.

Because so many key players graduated the previous year, no one expected the team to do well. However, the 1st badminton team still wrapped up the year with a considerably fearsome group of beginners tutored by veterans of the team. Of honourable mention were Brian Lin and Eric Nei who switched from U16 to 1st badminton due to their outstanding talents. In the CISAA tournament, the SAC team was tied with RSGC for first in the finals and the team went into a tie breaker: Samuel Lam and Ricky Luk both won their singles matches easily; however, the first and second doubles lost and it was up to third singles Paul Perrier to step it up a notch. Due to fatigue from earlier games though, Paul lost in the third game 10-15 and this resulted in the SAC 1st Badminton receiving a 2nd place in the CISAA tournament.

Of no surprise, this year's MVP was Samuel Lam and the MIP was Ricky Luk who rose to become one of the better players on team because of his hard work ethics. However, as Ricky is graduating this year he will be sorely missed. But with the quality line up of players still on next year's team, we can count on yet another potential championship team to lead our school to triumph.







MVP: Ryan Lo
MIP: Brent Cheng

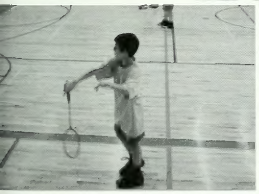
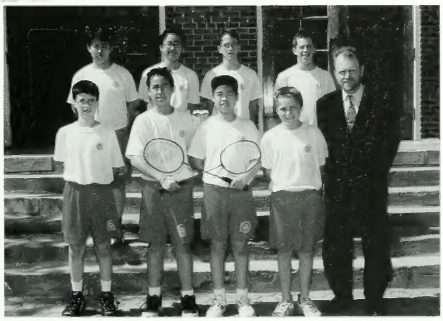
U14 Badminton





Front Row: M. Hanson, G. Si, K. Lam, R. Reininger, Mr. M. Jones Esq.
Back Row: S. Hon, J. Park, D. Daniell, K. Wilson

U14 badminton coached by Mr. Jones provided more of a threat to their opponents than expected. Although the team was young and inexperienced, through hard work and dedication, they matured really quickly and learned a lot of the inside tricks to badminton.

This year's MVP was Kevin Wilson who remained as both a consistent and excellent player since the beginning of the season. The MIP Richard Reininger whose diligence and hard work earned him this title on the U14 Badminton team.

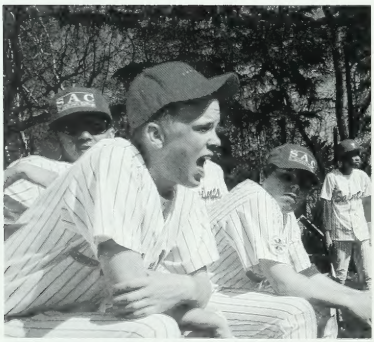
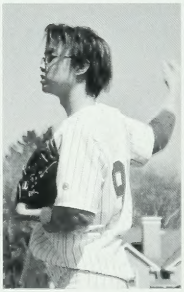
INTRAMURAL SPORTS

St. Andrew's has a vibrant sports program that includes not only representative teams but one that offers many other co-curricular activities as well. All students participate in the athletic program and what were considered non rep teams at one time have flourished to become highly competive sports in York Region. Volleyball and badminton would be two such sports in the school's history. In recent years, baseball and table tennis have drawn much interest and enthusiasm is high. Competition is keen and play is intense. Who knows? Perhaps these sports will grow to become major events in CISAA leagues in the future.





Let's Play Ball!

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Intramural basketball is a great way to have some fun, acquire sharp skills and work to improve your game. Games take place throughout the week and play is packed with intense moments like Geoffrey Lau's shut down blocks or Orson's amazing deke's. There are five teams of about five or six enthusiasts to each team. Team names are appropriate and include: "The Claws", "The Footy" and "Shottas". The fiery enthusiasm has led the intramural basketball program to be one of the more well known programs in the school. Thanks to Mr. Perrier and the keen and dedicated players who play for the love of the game and with great and friendly spirit.

So, you're in grade 10. You've been at the school for at least a year and you think you know what the school is all about, but you're only partway through your High school experience. You still have a few years to go.

Academically, we did pretty well this year, and as far as sports go, you couldn't find a more athletic group of guys. Luc Zorrato's skating up a storm on First Hockey, while guys like Mike Tsimas take the MVP on U16 Football.

Drewe Maciver was the first grade 10 to have a major role in the school play by playing Billy in Billy Bud.

We have guys like Ryan Miller and Sean Konapud who seem to have a gift for being able to pick up the ladies, and guys like Toms and Tsui lead in the academic department. Basically we have a really good diverse group of people this year.

Thank you to all our teachers for helping to make this a great year.

Grade Nine Review

I'm sure that anyone who looked back upon grade nine might not enjoy their vision. It is, after all, the first year within the realm of the significantly less-gentile upper school. It is, for the majority, the most aggravating and potentially disastrous year during the never-ending task of secondary school. It marks, in a blunt reality, the thin line between success and failure.

In this case, things must have gone terribly wrong.

I personally have never enjoyed a year as a student more than this. I've seen Allan Bean's rugby countdowns and watched Jarryd Stock morph into Baby John. I've heard Hugh Dowell sing, seen Patty dance, and laughed at Ravi's hair. I haven't seen a real loser, or someone who doesn't want to excel. I've never seen proof of Stew's 'stories' either, but that's beside the point.

It's been an exceptional year. There's really not too much more to say. Great year everybody and thanks for the memories.

Grade 8

The morale of the Middle School was high all year particularly because of a group of boys called The Middle School Council. They planned Grub Days, Spirit Days, Barbecues and Middle School dances. Working with Mr. Hanson, the Director of Middle School, the Council also organised a grade eight Semi-Formal. It was a special dinner and dance for the grade eight's to celebrate their graduation to Upper School. This was the first time that our College hosted such an affair so we wanted it to be special. The food was great, and even though there were a few anxious moments, it was a "huge" success.The first time I saw my grade eight class their faces were a blur. It was hard for me to distinguish between them, but now, each face is crystal clear with memories vibrantly and permanently imprinted in my brain. It's funny how we can forget things that seemed important at one time, then trivial at another. Here are a few memories so they don't get lost:

The nervous itch at the beginning of the year
The sweet smell of victory... over Upper Canada College
The roar of the S.A.C. cheer filling the massive grounds at Homecoming
The "excitement" of dances
The itch that always comes at the wrong time during Cadet inspection
The gnawing dread of exams
Then, when all is said and done, the relief

Pride, a theme through the hallways of SAC, found a home in the bodies of the grade eight students. And now, as we leave one life behind, and go down the hall into another we can't forget. We can't forget where we were, what we were, but most significantly who we have become.

Grade 7

The grade 7s had an excellent school year this year. It began with an excursion to Albion Hills where we all got to know each other and make some new friends. The first term went pretty well.

Everyone was a bit scared at the end of the term because of writing exams for the first time. But after they were over we realized they weren't that bad after all. We had various field trips this year like going to the Royal Ontario Museum, the Art Gallery of Ontario, the Science Center, and my personal favorite, when we went to see Fantasia 2000 on the big Imax screen.

Who could ever forget the humour that Ankush Sondhi, Eric Tozzi, and Michael Carney brought to class every day? Or the Mexican connection of Michel Richaud, Miguel Pardinas, Pablo Gonzalez, Alejandro Carranza, Luis Lozano, and Carlos Berlanga. All in all it was a great year for everyone and one of the best grade 7 years ever.

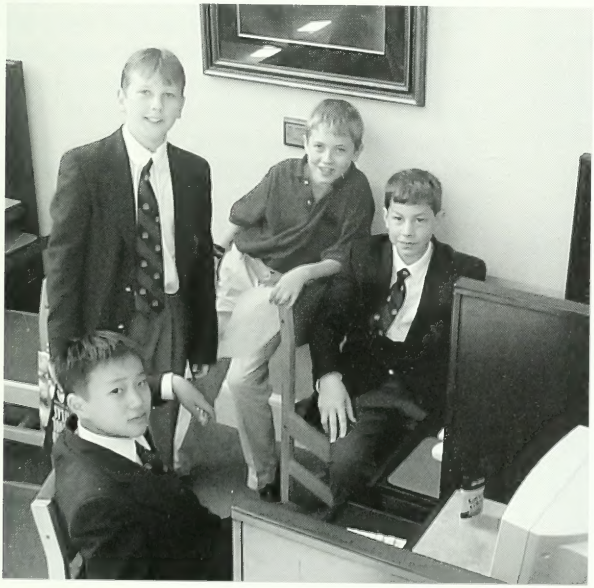
Grade 6 First Year at S.A.C



This was the first year St. Andrew's has taken new students to form the first grade 6 class.

The grade 6 class had fun playing on the new sports teams created for them like U12 soccer and U12 basketball. They enjoyed their new homeroom teacher Mr. Kyle who has just joined S.A.C this year. He teaches them grade 6 Science, Math, English, and Computer Studies.

In Science at the start of the third term, the grade 6 Science class designed robots which no other middle school science class created. In the last 2 weeks of class Mr. Kyle has allowed the class to make rockets. The grade 6 class took a trip to the Science Center which they enjoyed a lot. They took part in a simulation of a mission to land a probe on the moon. For Focus the grade 6 class directed by Mr. Kyle performed a play "The Sure Thing". It was lots of fun for both the viewers and the students performing.

To end the school year the grade 6 class had a great trip to Wonderland. Hopefully next year's grade 6 class will have just as much fun as ours did.

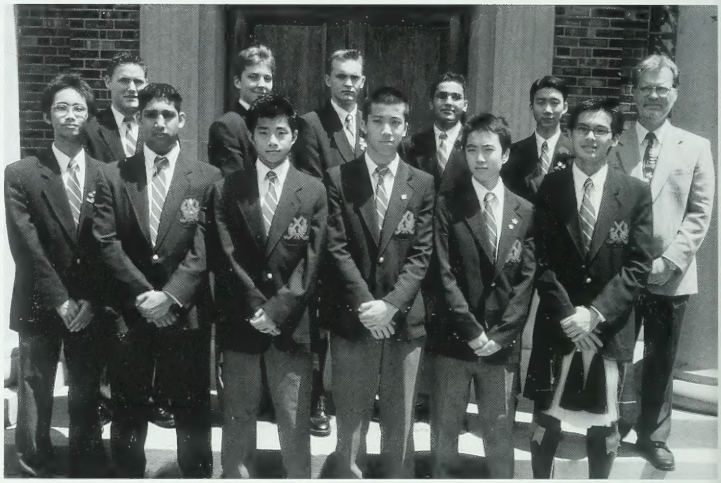
DECA

Hard fought battles - fabulous results!

This year's SAC DECA team enjoyed great success as many returning members provided great leadership guidance for the Club. With a lot of member remembering the success shared by last year's group, the team aimed high, hoping to achieve better than what we did last year.

One of the areas in which we concentrated on was Quiz Bowl team, which made its debut last year, gaining some valuable experience for the club. This year's quiz bowl team had fabulous results as they went and competed with some of the top high school teams from around the province. Co-Presidents Tejus Ajermera and Ryan Brandham led the squad, along with key veterans Kevin Fullerton and Jeff Ginou.



Back Row: K. Fullerton, J. Ginou, R. Brandham, T. Ajmera, J. Wu, Mr. R. Giel Esq.,
Front Row: J. Lau, Z. Thobani, F. Lam, I. Leung, K. Chan, J. Wong

After several easy sweeps by the team through the preliminary rounds, SAC found itself in the finals with our top competitor, Waterloo Collegiate. Through an hour of hard fought battle, the SAC team accomplished a well-respected 2nd place, just a couple of points short of capturing the title. Along with the quiz bowl team, other members of the DECA team enjoyed success in their oral events. Jackson Lau, Jonathan Wu and Jason Wong each received honourable mentions, as they were placed within top 15 out of 120 contestants in their individual events.

The members of the DECA teams would like to recognise the countless nights and endless extra hours M Giel has put sacrificed in order to make this organisatio work. Without his constant reminders and valuable knowledge as a judge, few could imagine the amount of success enjoyed by the club. Finally, good luck to our graduating members, wishing them success in universit and hopefully carrying on their valuable experience her into their future university chapters.

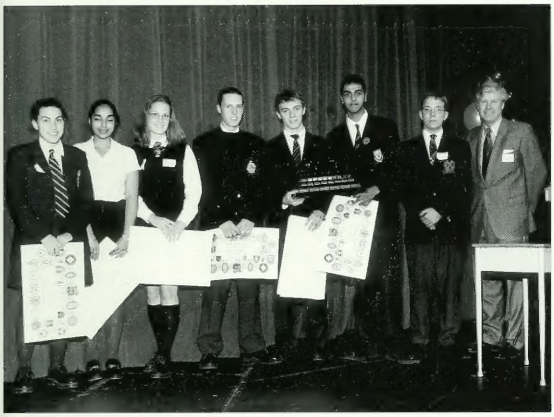
DEBATING

Banner Year for Debating!



This was a banner year for SAC's debaters – arguably the best we have experienced in at least five years. For this credit goes to a lot of people. As a rule when I do this year-end review, I try to mention each and every person who was involved in the events that we took on, but this time, I just don't have the space! I think that's a good sign, but I'm sorry not to be able to include what each of you did. So let's deal with the highlights!

Once in seven years it is our responsibility to host the Fulford league tournament for the more than 20 other independent schools who belong – and this was our year! On Saturday November 13 over three hundred judges and competitors flocked to our campus. During that one day our Senior Club members ran 66 debates, and every single boy in our Middle School was involved in guiding, hosting and timekeeping. As always our Ladies Guild were wonderful; special thanks go to Mrs Craig and Mrs Chanadi. We are deeply grateful to the 110 parents, former debaters and friends of the school who joined us that day as judges, five in every room. I chose as theme for the day the debt of the "developing world" and whether it was the responsibility of the "developed world" to deal with the overwhelming debt of the heavily indebted poor countries – a timely topic not previously debated in our league. The impromptu debates dealt with the pointed issue of body piercing and its place in defining human beauty! It was a super day; we are delighted to have had our chance to do it and to have done it well.

Our Juniors flourished under the tutelage of Mr Daniel Reid and received once again a delegation of young debaters from the Bermuda Debate Society for four days in April. During the Thanksgiving weekend next October half a dozen of our best prospects will pay a return visit to Bermuda with Mr Reid and this year's excellent President Andrew Martin escorting them. We were represented by three teams at the Junior High Provincials; Jeremy Springer and Greg Willmot spoke at the Stirling Hall Tournament. For the first time we held a public speaking challenge within the Middle School and the winners were Devon Daniell and Jonathan Mackenzie. On Prize Day Adam Rourke was chosen as best Grade 9 debater, and Alex McNabb of Grade 10 won the B.R. Mitchell Trophy.

In October the International Public Speaking Tournament for independent schools was hosted by Strathcona-Tweedsmuir School in Okotoks, Alberta, just outside Calgary. Our team consisted of Mike Craig, Drewe MacIver and Tejus Ajmera. Tejus honed his skills at this tournament and then scored a personal best and qualified for a citation in the second Fulford at T.F.S. Jeff Ginou was his partner here with Kevin Fullerton and John Lyons handling the intermediate duties. In the term three Fulford at MacLachlan College Jack Popiel and John Knutton were senior standard-bearers, supported by Wahid Amarshi and Alex McNabb. Even though we could only compete in the final two Fulfords, having been hosts in round one, we did improve our league standing over that of a year ago.

Each month throughout the year we took to the road about three times for invitational tournaments and social events. Memorable among the latter were the fixtures with Havergal, St. Mildred's-Lightbourne and B.S.S. Particularly exciting challenges among the former were our participation in the University of Toronto Tournament, in the Nora McRae for public speakers, and in the annual Headmaster's Cup with T.F.S. where Olivier Manigat, Jonathan Cheng, John Knutton and Andrew Martin were our standardbearers.

Despite their valiant efforts in home and away debates, our friendly rivals prevailed and will hold onto the cup for the coming year. Then in February we took the place of another school which had withdrawn its services in order to provide a venue for the central Ontario regional tournament in French debate. Mr Chris George from Bayview Glen and our own Mr Arril did yeoman service that day. In tournaments like these the perfomances of Peter Vogel, Ryan Aarts, Andrew Cronin and Asad Haque continue to stand out for me.

Undoubtedly the single (or double) most significant acquisition to the ranks of our Senior Debating Society was the arrival of Ali and Olivier Manigat. Although they were new to competitive debate, they took to it like ducks to water in all three language categories – as will be seen! A trio of our senior students excelled at the Metro regional level of competition and went on to the Provincials, two being Olivier Manigat and Andrew Martin who has made it to the Provincials now for three years running, a highly praiseworthy accomplishment.

The final member of the trio, brother Ali Manigat, debating in French, excelled again and qualified to attend the Nationals in Thunder Bay where he came eighth in the country. A further distinction for Ali is that he was elected by his peers at the Provincials to represent them in the coming year on the board of directors of the Ontario Student Debating Union. As a fellow board member I am going to enjoy his company at the meetings!

We have an excellent executive in place for next year: Andrew Martin, winner of the Brooks Trophy on Prize Day, will share the leadership of the society with incoming Presidents, Ali and Olivier Manigat. Secretary and keeper of records will be Hugh Dowell, another valuable addition this year. Senior Vice Presidents will be Jack Popiel and Mike Craig who won the C.R. Leslie Memorial Prize for his many useful contributions to debating this year. Junior Vice Presidents will be Alexander Chow, Kevin Fullerton and Jeffrey Ginou. They will assist in mentoring the younger members who meet with Mr Reid each week. There is so much to look forward to, plans being formed and some teams being assembled already. I can't wait to tell you about it in another year's time! It IS great to debate, and you are cordially invited to join the SAC speech and debate program!

Rupert J. Ray, Head of Debating

THE MIDDLE SCHOOL CLAN YEAR IN REVIEW

Some important developments happened on the clan front this year. Most significant was the long-pondered decision to re-integrate the clans so that each of the five clans contained a representative cross-section of boarders and dayboys. With the growing proportion of day students in the school this seemed the best way to achieve a balanced distribution that would be fair and fun for all. In such matters there are always pluses and minuses, but overall we are glad we did it – it seemed to draw us closer together and that's what the clan system is all about!

The first order of business in the early fall was to meet as clans, to discuss our traditions, to receive each his distinctive tartan clan tie and to elect clan captains who would provide leadership in the months to come. The captains and their assistants as chosen by their peers were as follows: from Bruce Clan, Chris McFarlane and Jeff Johnston; from Douglas Clan, Allan Bean and Hussein Amarshi; from Montrose Clan, Patrick McGrath and Jose Uribe; from Robertson Clan, Nick Dadson and Stuart Manchee; and from Wallace Clan, Andrew Douglas and Ryan Foreman. Andrew Douglas of Wallace immediately challenged the others by setting up a clan web site.

Shortly thereafter we initiated our internal competition in the running of the school cross-country which marks the start of the Thanksgiving weekend. The top finishers listed here from first to sixth were as follows: Simon Robinson, Chris McFarlane, Nathan Rothwell, Philippe Dabo, David Oram and Darryl Stock. When the finishing place scores were all averaged out Robertson was in first followed by Douglas and Bruce. Was this a sign of how things would turn out for the balance of the year?

The answer it turns out to this question is no. So many aspects of each boy's performance are counted in, his contribution to drama, debating, cadets and other extra-curricular activities, plus of course his academic prowess. But there are the big days such as the run and the annual dinner in honour of our patron Saint Andrew. On this occasion the guest speaker was Mr. Norman Turner, class of 1971, and he gave a highly coloured, slightly outrageous address which drew heavily on his memories of high jinks around Macdonald House. At least no one dozed off in this speech! We were diverted by displays of piping and highland dancing and the first batch of clan awards was presented.

In the early part of the winter with help from Mr. Hanson, Mr. Giel and the house captains a schedule of indoor soccer matches and a Clan Spirit Day took place and in both of these Montrose Clan began to show its depth. Could this be a sign of the times? The race was turning out to be quite tight between the five clans and it was becoming clear that the outcome of the intramural track and field meet near the end of the spring term just might turn out to be pivotal. And so it was: in fifth place were Robertson with 158 points, in fourth place Wallace with 195, in third place Douglas with 210, in second place Bruce with 238, and on top of the heap Montrose with 269!

On Prize Day we presented the Hockin Trophy to the captain of the clan that had acquired the most points amongst its members and in the opening year of the new millennium that honour went to Patrick McGrath, leader of Montrose Clan. Roberston Clan was the runner-up with Douglas in third place. We could engage in some reflections of the "what if" and "if only" variety, but it would serve little purpose. Competitions and races, even the most friendly ones, are meant to have winners. The final standings were more closely distributed that has been the case in quite a while and we all had fun taking part and in keeping the flame of the clans burning clearly. You are to be commended for your efforts and the final cheer goes to Montrose!

THE CLAN SYSTEM: A MICROCOSM OF SO MUCH AT S.A.C.

Prize Day is over: the announcements have all been made, the graduates addressed, the prizes distributed – and I am left with a bulging file of lists and e-mail announcements that I have collected over these passing months. Each reflects an aspect of the involvement of students in groups large and small or even individually that count toward the intramural clan competition that is part of our tradition. Can it really be over for another year? It strikes me that what I have in my hands is in some fashion the year in microcosm. So much that we value, that we will remember is right here.

Some of the lists are the obvious ones that carry so much weight, what athletic team or house league activity we all played for, what overall average we achieved on each report card, and who earned each prize. Add to that the participants in the high profile casts and teams, ensembles and events. Next add the groups whose special activity is best know to themselves, but not always to the rest of us; let me pick a few token examples randomly to show you what I mean: the Chess team, the DECA group, the SASSIN planners, the Community Service Council, the delegations to ISDF, ISMF and the Harvard Conference in Costa Rica.

Finally there are the individual students who achieved a personal best in a contest or feat: for example Randall Blom in the National Ski Marathon, Ali Manigat in the National Debate Seminar, and Andrew Cronin in the Duke of Edinburgh Challenge.

Again these are only a few of the many worthy commitments, but I want you to know that I endeavoured to weigh them all in as I evaluated your personal claims for clan colours and as I compared the accomplishment of each house in the overall clan competition. This is a reflection of some of what was best about the year that is now behind us, a year in microcosm.

On St. Andrew's Day we addressed the haggis, witnessed piping and drumming, and distributed clan colours to those who had qualified. Many thanks to Mr. McGillivray, to Mr. McCue and to the two lovely highland dancers who graced our proceedings with their presence. Our guest speaker that evening was Scott Bryk, a distinguished Andrean from the class of 1990, who travelled all the way from Vancouver in order to be with us and to reflect on the meaning of it all from the vantage point of ten years.

From my point of view one of the most satisfying accomplishments of this year was being able to act on last year's decision to give the former New House a fitting and permanent name in honour of Mr. Geoffrey Smith. The house now had a name, but we lacked the appropriate shield of arms to mount with the others on the walls of the Great Hall. Before Christmas I commissioned our superb heraldic artist, Mr. Gordon MacPherson of Burlington, to research and to paint what we required.

Yes, there have been Smiths in Scotland for centuries and they trace their kinship to several of the great clans. With this in mind our artist resolved to execute the shield of clan Chatton, which if you want to be correct is pronounced "hatton".

I picked up the finished work during the March break and rarely have I been so delighted with an fulfillment of a dream. The new shield is one of the most handsome in our collection and we decided to put it up early in term three for all to admire rather than to wait for the June 1st Clan Assembly when it was officially received. I'll let the picture speak for itself.

What were the outcomes of the two major days when we all competed head to head? In the fall cross-country run the top three clans were Ramsey, followed by Smith/Leslie and then Sifton/Stewart. The top six finishers starting with number one were Peter McClelland, Brian Chisholm, Alex Gawel, Ian Snider, Adam O'Meara and Mitch Smith. Two terms later the honours were up for grabs again at the annual track and field meet and without a doubt Ramsey had it in mind to secure bragging rights conclusively, but this time they were in for tough competition, not from the clansmen of Smith who slipped all the way to fifth place, but from the men of Sifton. The struggle was nip and tuck throughout the afternoon and it was not until the final relays that Sifton pulled away and made the day their own. Bravo, Stewart, for a wonderfully determined and organized showing! So where did this leave us at the end of the year? Wyn-Ron Cheong of Stewart was chosen as winner of the MacPherson Shield for his clan enthusiasm and generous spirit. The Laidlaw Trophy awarded to the graduating student who has earned for his clan the greatest number of points during his last two years was won by Ryan Brandham, with the runner-up being Iain Myrans. It was clear that the competition for the Housser Trophy was going to come down as it has before either to Smith or to Ramsey.

When the announcement was made on Prize Day it was Austin Porter, Head of Ramsey Clan, who heard his name being called and he accepted the trophy on behalf of the men of Ramsey. Undoubtedly for a few moments they had reason to feel good about themselves, but even more important is the impressive number of clan colour winners from all the clans who had met the demanding criteria for each level of recognition.

Each of them is entitled to feel good about what he is doing here at St. Andrew's College. This is what the clan system is all about, and this is why it is worth preserving and improving.

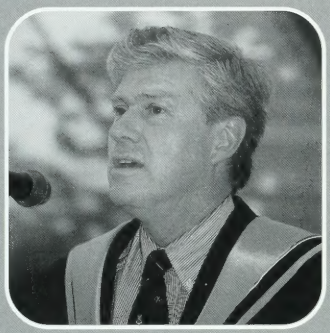
Coordinator of Clan Activities

Headmaster's Speech 1999 - 2000



Prize Day

Mr. Chairman; Chief Justice McMurtry; the Mayor of Aurora, Mr. Tim Jones; Members of the Board of Governors; Trustees of the St. Andrew's College Foundation; Members of the Faculty; Honoured Guests; Young Men of St. Andrew's College; Ladies & Gentlemen.

It is always with a sense of pleasure that we welcome our guests to Prize Day each year.

We are delighted that you could join us here today to celebrate with your sons the successful conclusion of the school year; to congratulate the graduating class, some of whom have been with us since grade 7, and all of whom today reach a milestone in their education; and to witness the awards to all those who, by diligence and endeavour, have won prizes.

I consider myself very fortunate to be Headmaster of this wonderful school. Not only am I provided with housing at the end of this quad, but the position of Headmaster comes with some additional perks. I have my very own cadet escort; I have my very own piper; and most importantly, when travelling abroad or shopping in Toronto, I have my very own body guards. Thank you, gentlemen, for all of your assistance this year.

It has been a fun year, by and large, made so by the personality 'quirks' of our boys.

Attending chapel each morning, I'm never sure what to expect; what hair style Kevin Richards will be wearing; what new muscles Nick Middleton will have and how many earrings Gerren Hopkin will be trying to conceal.

It's also been fun saving my money so that I could bid on Forbe Lilford's stereo; attempting to match wit with Ryan Brandham – unsuccessfully; trying to decipher the email messages on the Cricket team's conference and helping to keep the Scottish wool industry in business by ordering kilts for the Manigats.

In this my third year as Headmaster of St. Andrew's I have come to appreciate the ebb and flow of boardin school life.

I realize now, that there are going to be peaks and troughs, but I am comforted by the fact that things normally end up well in the end.

We have had peaks and troughs this year. Mark Twai once said, "never let your schooling interfere with you education", but surely the secondary school years are the best time for life lessons to be learned. Renownec poet John Keats wrote in 1818;

"In Endymion, I leaped headlong into the sea, and thereby have become better acquainted with the surroundings, the quicksands, and the rocks, than if I had stayed upon the green shore, and piped a silly pipe, and took tea and comfortable advice."

Winston Churchill stated; "While one person hesitates because he feels inferior, the other is busy makir mistakes and becoming superior".
We all make mistakes – the trick is to learn from then

I would like to end the school year in the way that began it. At the Opening Assembly in September, I announced that the theme for the year would be "PRIDE". I encouraged the boys to take pride in themselves, in their families, with their academic work and in their extra-curricular activities. Ladies and Gentleman, they have done this, and I am "Proud" of their efforts this year. Please give our student body a hearty round of applause for their efforts in all areas this year.

There is a well-known Latin phrase, "Non Nobis Solum" (Not for Ourselves Alone) which I think describes accurately the spirit of the school this year.

Examples of St. Andrew's Community Service efforts include:

The work of students Adam Brander, Ben Craig, Tom Haney, Josh Lim, John Lyons, Iain Myrans, Paul Perrier and Giancarlo Trimarchi and two faculty members, Marke Jones and Steve Kimmerer, who participated on SASSIN TREK 2000. They worked at 12,600 ft. on various community service projects such as; repairing fences, restoring local religious icons, assisting schools with the installation of email and working with local teams on the restoring of water supplies. Congratulations to this hard working group who represented the school so well in Nepal.

As you probably know, the entire Andrean community played a very significant role in the successful Ontario Special Olympics 2000 Spring Games hosted by York Region. 149 boys and ten staff members contributed over 1200 volunteer hours to this marvellous event. Congratulations to all of these hard-working individuals, particularly Jamie Near, Tom Long, Mike Craig, Nick Weedon and Jordan Ross on the student side and Mr. Mark Service, Mrs. Carol Rose-Kudelka, Ms. Antonia Venters, Mrs. Jane Bedard, and Mr. Dave Currah on the staff side.

The efforts of Mr. Service should receive special mention particularly with the St. Andrew's College Outreach Committee and the St. Lucia Summer Program.

Mrs. Wendy Pries is to be commended on revitalising community service at St. Andrew's. She formed a council with representatives from every grade who organized, promoted and led many volunteer projects in the Aurora and Newmarket area. Some of the projects were: running bingos at the Newmarket Health Centre, tutoring at Aurora Heights Public School, cleaning up Machell Park, participation in the United Way Leadership program and fundraising for numerous volunteer organizations. Congratulations Wendy.

Our Duke of Edinburgh Program is alive and well, thanks to Mr. Mark Service and Capt. Brian McCue. Gold medals in this demanding contest have been won by Michael Craig and Paul Perrier; Silver to Andrew Cronin and Bronze to Jarryd Stock, Joseph Rothwell, Nathan Rothwell, Stuart Manchee, Alessandro Lupo, Christopher McFarlane, Jordan Ross, John MacIver, Brendon McCullough, Trevor Fahlgren and Mitch Myers. Congratulations to all of these boys.

It is difficult to judge the academic record of the School without going outside the School. The success of our graduates, our University placements and our results on external exams are really the only objective barometers of academic health.

I am very pleased to report that this year's Graduating Class, numbering 74 boys, have received over $125,000 in scholarship offers to Universities and Colleges. We expect more to arrive in the next few days. 59 boys are remaining in Ontario to attend University; three are attending other Universities in Canada; ten boys, led by our Head Prefect, Alain Chicoine, who will be attending Princeton, are headed to the United States; one boy is attending Community College and one is taking the year off to play hockey. Arts, Business/Commerce, Engineering, and Science respectively are the chosen fields of this year's class. Please join me in applauding the academic accomplishments of the 1999/2000 Graduating Class.

While all of us were expecting this class to do well, we have some exceptional students in lower grades who are making their mark in National and International competitions. Chris Chui has been awarded the prestigious Rensselaer Medal Scholarship for his first overall ranking in mathematics and science. He was selected to receive the US$40,000 (US$10,000) annual award from over 29,000 participants. His award will begin in 2001.

In the highly competitive mathematics competitions operated by the University of Waterloo, the St. Andrew's College team of Adrian Chan, Ricky Luk, and Hyun Do Kim ranked 111th nationally out of 871 teams.

In the University of Toronto Biology competition Andrew Flavelle Martin finished 38th out of 4996 students, earning himself the title of National Biology Scholar.

You will hear later in the proceedings that Andrew Cronin and Michael Charlebois have won 1st place in the Eighth Annual E2 Management Corporation Conservation Video Contest for their video, entitled "Millennium GWS – Solutions for a Warming Planet." This is the second time in three years that boys from Mr. Galajda's class have won the award.

Ivor Skala in Grade 12 was chosen as the senior co-winner of the Ross Morrow Short Story Writing Competition organized by the Conference Of Independent School Teachers of English.

Mr. Ray reports that this was a banner year for Debating, the most successful in the last five years. As host of the Fulford League Tournament this year, students from 22 schools experienced first hand, S.A.C.'s beautiful campus and outstanding hospitality. Andrew Flavelle Martin, Olivier and Ali Manigat distinguished themselves in local and national competitions with Ali debating in French at the Nationals in Thunder Bay. He finished 8th in the country.

Mr. Rupert Ray, our highly esteemed debating coach, has been appointed to coach the team that will represent Canada at the World Schools' Debating Championship next February, in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Drama continues to play a vital role in the lives of many S.A.C. boys. Anyone who was involved in West Side Story, Billy Budd and Focus, please stand up.

See what I mean! And what a resource we have in Mr. Scoular, Mr. McGee and Mr. and Mrs. Clements. Let's hear it for them.

Athletic Highlights

First Soccer – coached by Mr. Marke Jones and Mr. Mark Marshall, the team completed an undefeated season and won their third consecutive CISAA Championship

Our Golf Team – coached by Mr. David Gaertner won its second CISAA Championship in the last three years.

Our Cricket Team - completed an undefeated season and brought home the CISAA Cricket Championship Trophy for only the second time in 101 years.

S.A.C. was CISAA Champions in five sports this year:

Senior Boys Track and Field
U16 Swimming
U14 Volleyball
U14 Basketball
U14 Rugby

Other team successes were:

- 1st Hockey won the Confederation Cup in St. John's Nfld. for the second year in a row. As well, they were Silver Medalists at the Nichols' Tournament, their best showing ever, and Bronze medalists at our own MacPherson Tournament. Let me take this opportunity to commend the Coaches, the Captains and the rest of First Team Hockey for persevering during a difficult season. They coped with a lot of adversity this season and still stuck together.

- 1st Rugby won the YRAA, qualifying for OFSAA and during that very challenging tournament they reached the semi-finals.

- 1st Football were finalists in the CISAA and semi-finalists at the Metro Bowl.

Individual accomplishments included:

- OFSAA Gold for Ryan Devald in Swimming
- OFSAA Gold for Samuel Lam in Badminton
- Peter McClelland won the School's X-country race
- Kevin Richards was the first ever third time MVP of First Soccer, attracting the attention of Bermuda's National Soccer Coach and Notre Dame University's Soccer Coach. Notre Dame won out!
- Jason Kaptyn won his fourth Golf Team MVP

Today we say goodbye to three members of the faculty and two members of staff:

Ms. Jane Kravchenko has been a popular teacher of English, Drama and Physical Education and a very capable Coach of Volleyball and Tennis for five years at S.A.C.. Her popularity is due, no doubt, to the dedication she displays to her students and the enthusiasm she demonstrates for the various sports which she coaches. Jane has decided to spend more time with husband Peter and their son, Satchel. We wish them all the very best in the future.

After only one year on the faculty, Clare owaltschuk has decided to accompany her husband to apan where they will teach for the next two years. ossessing many of the same attributes as her sister (Jane ravchenko), Clare has made a very good impression on is community in only a short period of time. She is a ery knowledgeable teacher of Geography and a commit-d Coach of Skiing and Badminton. Best of luck, Clare, you and Adam.

Mr. Tom Napier, our Desktop Specialist, is leaving t. Andrew's for another position in the computer field. Vorking behind the scenes, Tom has been a key ingredi-nt in the successful operation of the computer network S.A.C.. A thankless task, Tom has patiently supported e faculty's, staff's and student's computer needs. We ish him well in the next phase of his career.

Mr. Stephen Penton is leaving us for other pastures ter a very active year assisting with the supervision of Iacdonald House, teaching a grade 8 English class, oaching football, directing plays and assisting with trips nd the weekend program. His positive attitude and fectious enthusiasm for all he does will be missed. tephen is to be married this summer so we send best ishes from the entire Andrean community.

Rob McLean, our friendly GAP student from ustralia, is leaving us after two terms to join Rosseau ake College in Muskoka. Rob made numerous friends uring his short stay and this was due to his willingness to tor boys and help coach as many teams as possible. I n particularly grateful to Rob for his invaluable help ith this year's Cricket team. Hope to see you soon ob.

We also wish Luigi Oliveri on our janitorial staff for e past six years the very best in his new job.

I would like to take a minute to compliment this ear's Prefect body. My memories of them will be the ay they strolled into my office on Thursday, as if they wned the place. Sir, with all due respect, do this; Sir, I on't mean to offend you but, do this; Sir, we have a rty on Friday night – any chance the School could tend us some credit; Sir? I mean, "Is that the way you member your relationship with your school Principal? ese meetings are my most enjoyable times. To this, lain Chicoine would probably say, "Get a life, Sir." owever, we've had fun and that's the name of the me.

Speaking of Alain Chicoine, I would like to say, in your presence, what an excellent ambassador for S.A.C. he has been. What do you think Class of 2000? We'll all miss Al's calm leadership abilities and wish him well at Princeton.

In your presence, I would like to acknowledge the efforts of the Board of Governors, under the direction of Mr. Brian Armstrong. A strong Board is synonymous with a strong school and we're fortunate to have such dedicated volunteers.

To the Ladies' Guild members, particularly President Tina Rogers and Vice-President, Gerri Pike, and their extremely hard-working Executive – Thank you for a fabulous year.

To the faculty and staff, thank you sincerely for your hard work and support all year. Please join me in thanking the St. Andrew's College faculty and staff for all they do for your sons.

A special word of thanks to the Leadership Team at the School. Mr. Walden, newly appointed Assistant Headmaster, Ms. Angela Phillips, Ms. Beth McKay, Mr. Jim Herder, Mr. Struan Roberton, Mr. Aubry Foy, Mr. Paul Bedard, Mr. Michael Hanson, Mr. Greg Dominato and Mrs. Gayle Petri.

A day such as this requires a two month planning schedule. My thanks to Gregory Dominato, Maria Pilieci, Edna Collins, Michelle Mix, Beth McKay and Gayle Petri for a superb job in organizing this complex event.

All the best to everyone for a safe and enjoyable summer.
